Congress Groups Demand Halt Of Defense Strikes

Virtual Two Weeks Ultimatum Handed To Bring Strike Wave To Close

CONGRESS TO TAKE ACTION OTHERWISE

Anti-Strike Legislation Can't Be Smothered If Defense Tieups Continue

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Influential congressional groups today handed labor and industry a virtual two weeks ultimatum to halt defense strikes or suffer the sting of restrictive legislation.

Congress stood practically idle with the house in adjournment until April 14 and the senate planning three-day recesses. But key members of both senate and house—many of them staunch administration supporters—flatly said it will be impossible to smother anti-strike legislation when congress gets back on the job unless conditions improve.

President To Appeal

Democratic leaders were informed that President Roosevelt today will appeal for cooperation to halt strikes which impede national defense and are hopeful that this will remedy the situation. They were doubtful, however, that such an appeal would be entirely effective.

Sen. Overton (D) La., who with Sen. Russell (D) Ga., put through congress the famous "draft industry" resolution, said he may offer the following three-point program if strikes continue after Easter:

1. Allow the president to take over

PA NEW OBSERVES

Bicyclists in the city of New Castle are not the only ones that had to heed traffic regulations. Last night Pa Newscaster encountered a pair riding a bicycle on the Wilmington road, just outside the city, who were riding directly against traffic. It was dark and there was no light on the bicycle. Fortunately lights on the auto picked up the traffic violators in time for the auto to turn out.

Fixing of the school tax levy for the city at the same rate as last year means that taxpayers in the city of New Castle, on their taxes as a whole, will have something of a reduction this year, both the county and city tax rates having been lowered a little.

Work is reported in progress on tennis courts in some of the city parks. Many New Castle residents believe that a lot more tennis courts should be constructed in the city, the demand each summer being greatly in excess of the supply.

One week from today is Good Friday, and the Sunday following is Easter.

With spring weather actually descended upon us, indications are that there will be a huge crowd of shoppers in the city tomorrow, as the dress up program swings into the final week before Easter.

Daily Weather Report

United States weather statistics for the 24 hour period ending at 9 a. m. today are as follows:

Maximum temperature, 67.
Minimum temperature, 42.
No precipitation.
River stage, 5.8 feet.

Statistics for the same date a year ago, follow:

Maximum temperature, 74.

Yugoslavia Increases Preparations For Possible War With Nazi Forces

BELGRADE, April 4.—With political unity between Serbia and Croatia now accomplished, the Yugoslavian government intensified its preparations for possible war with Germany today.

Anti-aircraft batteries were manned and on the alert throughout the nation after the government imposed total blackouts on Belgrade, the Croat capital of Agram (Zagreb), and the Slovene capital of Ljubljana and proclaimed all three "open cities."

The Belgrade blackout, ordered as a test, lasted only half an hour but caused considerable alarm. Some

These sources said a reply is expected before tonight.

They stated a British officer carrying a white flag was sent to Massawa.

He was instructed to point out to authorities there that it was necessary for the British to have control over Massawa in order to feed the civilian population of Asmara.

British units in Eritrea advanced against Massawa after capturing Asmara, the Eritrean capital.

Billion More Is Pumped Into Aid For Democracies

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, April 4.—President Roosevelt disclosed today that another $1,000,000,000 had been pumped into aid for the democracies in the past few days, including an allocation for the construction of 212 new merchant ships and from 50 to 60 new ship-building ways.

In addition, the president announced that the army, navy and agriculture departments are studying still further aid allocations running between $1,500,000,000 and $2,000,000,000. These are expected to be put through shortly.

At the same time, the president revealed that Yugoslavia had expressed a desire to acquire certain types of defense material from the United States and this government is now seeing whether it is available.

First Aid Teams Ready For Disaster

Eighteen Teams Of Six Persons Each, Will Cover County In Disaster Program

At a meeting in the rooms of the Lawrence county chapter, American Red Cross, last evening, which was presided by First Aid Chairman Harry Culliford, the county was organized for any emergency disaster. Eighteen teams will be formed to cover every section of the county and be prepared for any call made upon them in the event of an emergency or disaster, as a part of the national disaster program.

Each team will be made up of four who have received standard first aid certificates; one first aid instructor; and one life saver. All will be furnished with the necessary equipment to take care of first aid cases.

The Scottish Rite Cathedral was chosen as a central location for taking care of cases in the event of an emergency.

Team No. 1 has already been organized. It is captained by Elmer Thustman and is ready to serve in an emergency at a moment's notice.

DETROIT, April 4.—This was the day Michigan feared.

Troops had been asked, charges had been made of guns and men smuggled into the sprawling Ford plant at Dearborn, the United Automobile Workers union smarted under the judicial lash of court restraint, and even the grey skies were foreboding.

This morning the U. A. W. moved to set aside the restraining order signed last night by Federal Judge Arthur J. Tuttle, but because the union came to court with oral arguments rather than a written petition, the court refused to entertain the protest.

Judge Tuttle said he would be available Monday if the union has a written motion by that time. Counsel for the strikers said he would have it this afternoon.

Truck Takes Fire During Noon Hour

Five fire companies were called into action during the noon hour when a big truck owned by Bowman & Peabees was set afire by welders, who were cutting through the upper part of the truck, as it was parked in the rear of South Mercer street, setting fire to the canvas covering, which blazed fiercely for a time. An alarm was sounded from box 112, which being in the business district, brought out the five companies. The services of only one were needed, however. Damage of around $50 was done.

Thursday afternoon at 3:20 o'clock firemen were called to the home of Frank Gaston, 715 Grant street, where an overheated stove set fire to wallpaper nearby. The damage was slight.

The Spanish Catholic organ "Ya," a highly influential publication in this predominantly Catholic nation, published a dispatch from its Rome correspondent which contained this significant line:

"There is a possibility of a determined effort for peace in the world. It is backed by the pope himself, or is being made at the suggestion of some nation not too compassed by her own attitude."

Grass Fires Burn Over Large Areas

Several Large Fires Reported In County Thursday Afternoon

Grass fires, most of them set to burn off the weeds on farm lands, burned over large areas in the county Thursday afternoon.

City firemen were called to the district east of the New Wilmington road about 2 o'clock when a fire of huge proportions threatened the property of William E. Feyer, Glenn Hileman and George Altman, being fanned towards their homes by a stiff breeze. Firemen extinguished the blaze as it neared the various properties. Neshannock township firemen also assisted, along with a number of volunteers.

Another fire of large proportions was reported near Rose Point, while at various points throughout the county, the smoke and flame from burning fields could be noted in many directions.

By KINGSBURY SMITH

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The United States government today flatly rejected all demands made by the German and Italian embassies for the release of 30 Axis ships and their crews seized in American waters following the attempts to sabotage the vessels.

In rejecting the demands, the American government expressed "surprise" at their extreme nature and asserted that "no civilized nation" would have tolerated the attempted sabotage of foreign vessels in their ports.

Notes Delivered

Three Axis demands had been made for immediate release of the ships, freedom of the crews, and permission for them to return to their vessels. The American notes refusing the demands were delivered to the German and Italian embassies last night.

The only concession made by the American government was an expressed willingness to inquire into the alleged mistreatment of the crews. A protest against the treatment of the crews was also made, and the demands were delivered to the state department by the German and Italian embassies, which asserted this government had no right to imprison the men and complained against the treatment of them in prison. The state department promised to send another note to the embassies concerning these charges.

Legislative Reappointment Proposed

Commission Is Suggested

House Majority Leader Suggests Plan To Break Twenty Year Dead-lock

NEXT LEGISLATURE WOULD GET REPORT

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, April 4.—House Majority Leader Leo A. Achteman today proposed creation of a legislative commission to draw up a plan of re-appointment for the house and senate in an effort to break a 20-year dead-lock.

"This commission should be authorized to report back to the next legislature," said the house Democratic leader.

Achteman expressed the view that no legislative reappointment bill would be enacted at the present session, despite a constitutional provision requiring redistricting every 10 years.

Report Back To Next Assembly

To attempt to settle the problem at this session would prolong the legislative unduly, said Achteman. "I think a much better plan would be to create a non-partisan commission which would report back to the next general assembly."

There has been no reappointment of assembly and senatorial districts since 1921, when the house membership was set at 208 and that of the senate at 50. A 1937 house reappointment bill, which ignored the senate but reduced the number of assemblymen to 203, was invalidated by the courts on the grounds that it neglected to include several voting districts.

Achteman expressed confidence that a congressional reappointment bill would be enacted at the present session, despite the political division of the two houses, reducing the number of congressmen from 24 to 33 in conformity with the 1940 decennial census. Pennsylvania's population has increased since 1930 but not in proportion to the population of the country as a whole.

YUGOSLAVIA IS PREPARING FOR WAR WITH NAZIS

Residents rushed to air raid shelters although no air raid alarm was sounded.

A dispatch from Budapest said the Yugoslav high command moved its general headquarters to an undisclosed town in Bosnia from Belgrade and that a three-year reserve supply of gasoline had been cached secretly in South Serbia.

Claim "Serbian Terror"

A German dispatch said that "Serbian terror" was continuing and that Yugoslavia's army was dynamiting bridges near Nisch, where troops were reported concentrating.

An official government statement said:

"In a series of measures dictated by the present situation, the government has decided, in the event of finding ourselves in war, that Belgrade, Zagreb and Ljubljana will be proclaimed open, undefended cities."

The experimental blackouts in Belgrade and other cities were staged after reports reached Belgrade that large German air force units were concentrating in Austria, Rumania and Bulgaria near Yugoslavia's frontiers.

At the same time there were unconfirmed rumors that British warplanes and their crews had arrived in Belgrade to help defend Yugoslavia.

A panicky exodus from Belgrade continued, despite a second order by Premier Gen. Dusan Simovic, forbidding civilians to flee from the capital.

Intensified military preparations followed the military's success in forging a united political front. Dr. Vladimir Macek, Croat leader, was scheduled to arrive in Belgrade from Zagreb this morning after announcing his decision to hold the post of Vice Premier in the Simovic cabinet.

Those attending from New Castle were the Rev. Philip C. Pearson and the Rev. Charles J. Burton. The meeting had to do with the Forward in Service Ten Year Plan of the Episcopal church.

PASSENGERS IN PLANE FORCED DOWN

W. Crile, famed surgeon-scientist of Cleveland, and Mrs. Crile, another prominent passenger was Mrs. James M. Cox, Jr., daughter-in-law of the former Ohio governor and Democratic presidential nominee.

Most critically hurt was the transport's captain, Gerald O'Brien, who was "sunk out" for particular praise by everyone.

Stories from the various passengers revealed that after the plane landed in the swamp with a terrific impact, Capt. O'Brien, who sustained a broken leg and other injuries, was held a prisoner under the steering wheel, crushed tightly against him, with most of his body under water.

Nevertheless, in the words of Mrs. Crile, who said she thought she had one or more broken ribs in addition to lacerations, "Capt. O'Brien was magnificent."

"All of us sat in water until they found us," Mrs. Crile related, "but the captain certainly was in the worst position. Some of the men got out of the plane, but we women remained inside. It was so black there."

Spotted In Swamp

The plane left Miami for Daytona Beach yesterday morning, and last was reported at 8:37 a. m. Planes searched all day before the ship was spotted nesting in the swamp. Fishing camp guides from a mainland resort furnished flat-bottomed boats and rescuers were forced to row five miles back and forth through the mud and water of the swamp, on the edge of the Everglades.

Mrs. Crile said the ship ran into a violent storm shortly after leaving Palm Beach. She related:

"The plane was tossed around for I don't know how long. We didn't know where we were. Everything loose in the cabin flew about."

"The tossing of the plane was so violent we didn't even know we were falling. (Another passenger estimated the plane fell 3,000 feet before the captain regained control.)"

"We landed in the swamp with a terrific crash, but everyone remained so calm. There was not the slightest panic. No one even cried."

Mrs. Crile said she had heard Capt. O'Brien mention "allerton trouble" but she didn't know what he meant. Cause of the plane's sudden descent, apparently partly out of control, was expected to be explained later by Capt. O'Brien.

The plane's motors and wheels were torn loose in the landing; the controls were wrecked, and the wings damaged.

Dr. Crile, like his wife, was believed to have suffered at least one fractured rib and cuts and bruises.

All the other passengers and the other two crew members likewise were said to have sustained lacerations and shock but to have escaped any serious hurt.

Demand Strike Wave End

As congressional demands were made for an ending of the strike wave, Secretary of War Stimson gave notice that the government is prepared to operate the strike bound Allis Chalmers Milwaukee plant if necessary. He declared that strikes are having a "very serious" effect upon the defense program and warned those involved in the dispute not to "misconstrue Uncle Sam's patience for weakness."

Allis Chalmers executives and representatives of the striking CIO-United Auto Workers' Union were asked to come to Washington Saturday for conferences with the national defense mediation board.

Meanwhile, Secretary of Labor Perkins indicated that she is considering certifying the Ford strike to the board, asserting that she is awaiting further developments in the dispute. She said there are only eight defense strikes, including the Ford situation.

Strategy of powerful senate and house forces demanding legislation will be first to appeal to the administration to sponsor it. Failing this they will open a drive of their own.

"Congress can't be stopped if the situation which is wrecking the defense program continues," said Rep. Cox (D) Ga.

Republican House Leader Martin, who also is chairman of the Republican national committee, warned in a speech last night that the nation demands production and more production.

U. S. REJECTS ALL DEMANDS TO FREE SEIZED AXIS SHIPS

demands was based on the grounds that the captains and crews of the vessels had violated American domestic laws by wrecking the machinery of their vessels, and this violation gave the American government the right to remove the crews and take over control of the ships.

In rejecting the demands for release of the ships and their crews the American notes emphasize that the vessels were taken into protective custody because the attempted sabotage of them in American waters constituted an outright violation of this country's domestic laws.

Meanwhile, American officials awaited with keen interest the reaction of the Italian government to Secretary Hull's request for the immediate recall of the Italian naval attaché in Washington, Admiral Alberto Laio, on the grounds that he is the orders for the wrecking of machinery in the 28 Italian vessels which were seized.

Awaits Instructions

Colonna was awaiting instructions from Rome as to what course he should pursue in view of this government's drastic action in not only refusing to release the ships and their crews but in requesting the recall of Admiral Laio.

Authoritative quarters doubted that Premier Mussolini would go so far as to sever diplomatic relations with the United States, but it was thought possible that Rome would retaliate by requesting the recall of the American naval attaché there, Capt. Thomas C. Kirkland.

If Mussolini should decide to sever diplomatic relations with this country, it would be the first time they ever have been broken off. The United States has maintained uninterrupted diplomatic relations with Italy since George P. Marsh, of Vermont, was sent to Italy 80 years ago as first American minister.

Greece will permit more news-reels and shorts to enter the country.

EARLY PEACE AT FORD PLANT IS NOT LIKELY

with the Ford company or any of its employees will stand, as usual, for a period of five days.

In another development, Harry Bennett, Ford personnel manager, announced that the company would not reopen its plants until "this problem is entirely settled." By "this problem" it was understood he meant the present labor dispute.

Peace looked far away as Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner insisted sternly.

The UAW-CIO and the Ford Motor company have agreed to mediate and I expect and I insist that they keep their agreement to end this strike."

Seek Settlement

But while the governor talked mediation and Federal Conciliator James P. Dewey echoed the theme in a statement that efforts were still being made to find a peaceful solution for the strike at the Dearborn plant, which began in bloody violence early Wednesday, there were these developments:

1. R. J. Thomas, president of the U. A. W. and Michael F. Widman, Jr., organizer of Ford workers for the union, charged they had information that machine guns and other weapons and men to operate them had been smuggled into the struck plant during the night.

2. Persons familiar with camp routine at Camp Custer, 116 miles from Detroit, reported that all leaves were cancelled last night, duffle bags packed, trucks gassed up and—ammunition issued.

3. Use of troops had been suggested by two sources, the federal court judge who issued the sweeping restraining order against the UAW-CIO and a local of the federal union A. F. of L., whose members demanded the right to return to their jobs at the Dearborn plant under adequate protection.

However, no formal request had been made to the President for troops so far as could be learned here, and they could not be used without his formal sanction.

Injunction Terms Sweeping

The sweeping terms of the injunction were such that Ford's Dearborn plant, strike-bound since early Wednesday, could open under the protection of the court at once, but company spokesmen said that the management would keep its pledge to Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner not to attempt to open while mediation efforts continued.

Van Wagoner was nettled by the new turn of events which threatened mediation proceedings and in a crisp statement declared:

The UAW-CIO and the Ford Motor Co. have agreed to mediate and I expect and I insist that they keep their agreement and end this strike."

Even before they had learned the exact terms of the injunction, the strikers were seething for the whole performance came as a bombshell at a time when they believed mediation efforts might be making some progress, and they had toned down their original demands to a bargaining basis.

After first describing the violence of the strike as among the facts of his finding, Judge Tuttle noted: "I make the further finding that the Ford Motor company has not failed to comply with any obligation imposed by law which is involved in this particular labor dispute in question."

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

ENCOURAGE SELF-DISCIPLINE

During Lent many persons who are religious practice some special self-denials for their souls' sake. I am very sure they derive character as well as spiritual values from this practice. Indeed, it seems to me that one of the greatest returns from sincere religious efforts comes through self-denial for an ideal, so long as such self-denial does not infringe upon the rights of others. Even limiting the amount we eat at any time, so as not to grow too stout, requires character.

Some of us were not brought up with the religious discipline for which Lent has so much significance. Nevertheless, we should be able to appreciate the values others get from Lenten practices and stick to the ideals and to discipline themselves accordingly.

If, therefore, children or youths who are sacrificing something come to your home during Lent, don't tempt them. Rather try to encourage them in their self-discipline, knowing they are cultivating good character qualities from it.

It seems to me that those parents who observe the spirit of Lent in their homes will do well to aim at winning their children to cooperate rather than to try to coerce them.

Don't Force Children

As we approach the Easter season, many parents and church teachers will be putting emotional pressure on children and youths to become church members. A few of these parents and teachers, in their sincere zeal will be tempted to press a little too far. If they do, the ultimate outcome might be the very opposite to what they desire. There is danger from too much play upon the child's heartstrings just as there is also danger when pressure reaches the point of coercion. We need to remember, too, that while it is possible to force a child or youth to go through the form, we can't dictate sincere beliefs. We can only win them.

We are near the time of year when, all over the United States, thousands of children, youths and adults will publicly become church members. Right then and immediately thereafter is the psychological time to enlist these new members in active church participation. So often they soon grow indifferent and cold toward the religious cause they have espoused. To embark upon any such cause without forging ahead and keeping the purpose alive may prove harmful. Therefore, parents, church school teachers and the older members of the church need to feel a responsibility.

Parents who really care can afford to discipline themselves, even though they suppose they do not need it. The spiritual values from church attendance. They should go regularly in order to make it easier for their children to keep alive their newly-acquired religious obligations. Anyway, in these trying times, religious efforts will be good for all of us. As with the beautiful in literature, art, music, we tend to cultivate and keep alive our spiritual tastes as we exercise them and mingle with others who gain values from them.

Solving Parent Problems

Q. What do you consider the best way to cure nail-biting in the child?

A. Say nothing about it in the presence of the child. Work on yourself and the entire family to create a more serene family atmosphere and protect him from undue worries and excitement. Expect improvement only after some weeks or months.

Q. My boy 10 years old bolts his food and hurries out to play. How may I teach him to eat more slowly?

A. Not by lecturing and scolding him. Tell him he must not leave the table until the end of twenty minutes.

Q. Why does the youth so often utter ah and in and speaking in the classroom?

A. These words serve as fillers in the painful intervals when words and ideas lag. We aid the youth at home or school to use these fillers less as we help him to feel more comfortable when he speaks and more at ease.

THE RECOMPENSE

Italian Generals get $2500,000 a year. British Generals get $12,000 a year. It's quite a difference.

Now, by international convention, officer prisoners must be paid by the government; that imprisons them the same pay as officers of corresponding rank in the armed forces of that government.

According to an editorial in London's Daily Mail last year, "The appropriate amounts are now being paid regularly to officer prisoners both here and in Germany."

It is just possible that this nice little international consideration had some influence on the minds of those numerous Italian generals and other officers during the debacle in North Africa. The dishonor of surrendering had its compensations. Especially as they had always rather liked the British, and were not quite convinced that if Duce's friendship with Herr Hitler was completely to their taste.

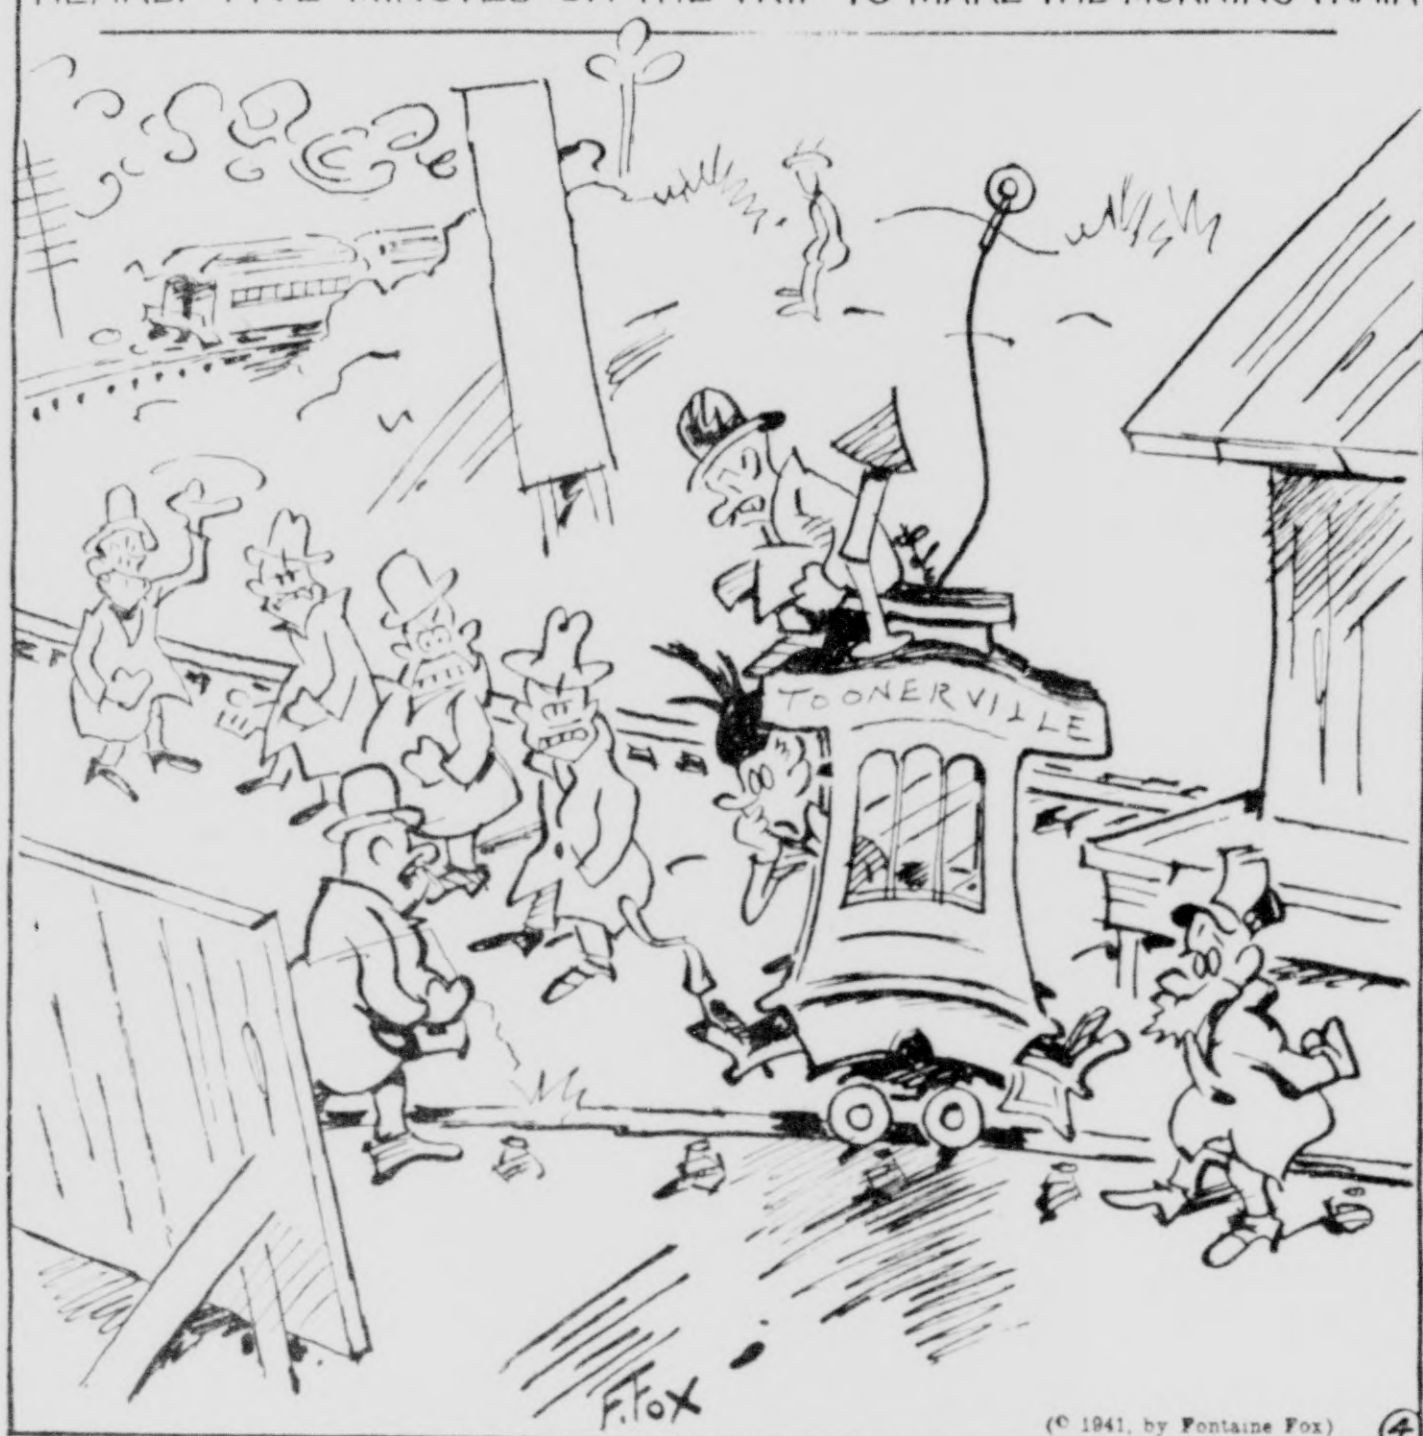

One can almost picture them humming Pooch-Bah's plaint, "I am so proud, if I'm allowed my family pride to be my guide..." But family pride must be denied, and set aside, and mortified... when a matter of $9500 a year additional compensation, with less work and shorter hours, beckons...

For the same reason one can understand why British Generals are up against no such temptation. Neither are their other officers.

Snake Bite Bayou

March 25, 1941.

As regards where I wrote you last week exposing where your old man came by my place with a buggy load of people from my old home town it was stated by me that I would later on clip my pen in ink etcetera.

The week before your old man came here I sent at 1 o'clock and the same time 4 (four) citizens of your city which had snuck away to loaf down here. There was in this mob the following twit: Lou Round Baldy Kammerberg Doc McDowell & Minnie Shenkin. The reason of the same was on account I was being took in to a lunch club here which these birds belong to in New Castle & they all happened to be there.

The remarks made by me as regards being took in is strictly true. I was sure took in & lost money on the deal. The same happened like this twit. When I come here to this place a committee of indignant citizens come out to my place & they said Joe there has been a whole lot of things has been wrote to us about you by some people which knew all about you where you come from. After a lot of dispute was had in our lunch club as regards the same they said we was appointed a committee of 3 (three) to invite you to belong to the club. They said we figured it would be more prosperous for all concerned if you was on the inside looking out instead of being on the outside where goodness knows what might happen if we didn't have our eyes on you.

Well I says I never yet starved by taking up an invitation to lunch. I says if you can stand it you can count me in. Well when I came to the place where the eating was to be done some claid hand artist at the door says get your ticket from the young lady at the desk. So I said to the girl let me have my ticket. She said certainly I (one) dollar please. Come off your perch I says I don't have to pay here I says I been invited to be a member here & where I come from you don't have to pay where you get invited to a meal. Well she says if you want to eat here you got to pay. So I said to Lou Round which used to be a friend of mine how about it Lou. & he said well they got the right to make their own rules. So I got stuck for 1 (one) buck.

When your Pa come by here I asked him as regards the hold up on account he claims lots of infirmity & he said you got yourself stuck Joe. Its too bad.

So long

Question: May the bridegroom, best man and ushers wear tuxedos at a simple wedding ceremony taking place at 7 or 7:30 in the evening? The bride plans to wear a bridal gown and veil—B. G.

Answer: Surely, you may wear dinner jackets (tuxedos), especially if the bride will wear a dinner dress or even if she wears a wedding dress and veil along simple lines.

A formal evening wedding requires formal evening clothes—swallow tail coats, etc.

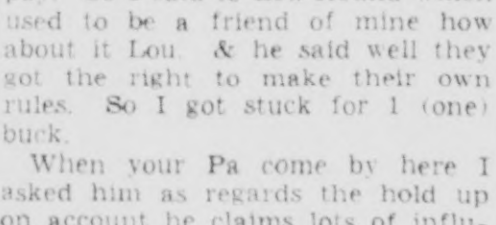

The bride and her attendants must not be dressed more elaborately than are the bridegroom and his attendants.

Question: At a church wedding, it is necessary to have a page when the bride has a train on her dress? Should the bride wear her wedding dress and veil during the reception or change as soon as she returns from the church?—Mimi.

Answer: Whether the bride has a page depends upon her own desires. It is not at all necessary. In fact, most brides do not have pages or train-bearers.

The bride should wear her wedding dress and veil during the entire reception, or until she is ready to leave for her honeymoon, when she changes to travelling clothes.

Filipino Lobbyist Expresses Opinions
Says Japs Have Plot Against The Canal
Doesn't Want Independence In Islands

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, April 4.—As crazy an idea as there is in circulation in this country today is the suggestion that Japan, under present conditions, may try to do something to put the Panama canal out of business.

My informant was Dr. Vicente Villamin. He's an eminent Filipino economist, lawyer and politician. He also writes for the Manila press. For some time he's been in the United States lobbying to prevent the Philippines, if he can, from graduating into independence in 1944, as Uncle Sam originally had planned. If they do get their independence, he's convinced that Japan will take it away from em in short order, and he'd a deal rather have 'em dependent on us than on the Mikado. If anybody knows more about the Japs than he does, it's the Japs themselves, and they won't tell. He will, and he certainly is an authority.

"More than anything else in creation," explains the doc, "what the Japs want is to have the bulk of the Yankee fleet filter out of the Pacific into the Atlantic. After the American fleet's done that, if it does it, then look out for em to attempt corks up the canal, to keep the United States warships bottled up in the western ocean, as far as possible. You see," continues our Filipino visitor who also is specialized on Germany in connection with his study of the Oriental situation, "the Mikado and Herr Hitler really haven't a thing in common despite their Axis compact."

"The Nazis naturally don't want war with the United States. Not yet, I mean. They're too busy elsewhere. But they do want Japan at war with Uncle Sam, because that would force him to concentrate in the Japs' direction, largely eliminating him as an Atlantic oceanic factor."

Japan's Hope

"But Japan doesn't want war with Uncle Sam, either. War with this country would distract Japan's attention from a job of grabbing it's endeavoring to put across in Asia and the Pacific. But the Mikado surely does want Germany and the United States at war. That would leave the Japs comparatively free to go ahead with their Oriental and Australasian grabbing."

"That the whole secret of the Japs' dicker."

"Japan and Germany each aimed at enticing the other into doing its chestnut-pulling. Neither wants war with the United States—not now. Each wants the other to go into it."

"Jap-German economic aims clash too."

"Germany, if it wins the war, hopes to get back into Asia on a big commercial and maybe territorial scale. It was well entrenched there before the last World War, but Japan took advantage of that conflict to chase the Kaiser out of it."

"The Germans provided they're victorious in Europe this time, will try to recover all they lost previously and a lot more also. They want pay a cents worth of attention."

Submarines And Ships

WASHINGTON, April 4

THE clearest-thinking and best-informed men in Washington are deeply disturbed over the failure of this country to evolve a shipbuilding program adequate to meet the exceedingly critical situation. So far as helping England to win the war is concerned, they are agreed that shipping is more vital than anything else.

YET not only is our production far below capacity, but our direction is off. Airships, guns and food, of course, are essential, but the basic essential is ships. Without ships the goods simply cannot be delivered. Without ships our whole defense effort bogs down and we frustrate our own purpose. We are, of course, building ships, but in nothing like the number and with nothing like the speed for which the crisis calls.

FOR example, it is pointed out that in the last war we had more than 230 shipyards on the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Great Lakes. Before the war ended we were turning out at Hog Island a ship a day. Actually, they were turned out so fast that it was a job to get girls enough to christen them. Today we have about 40 shipyards, all told, and the largest of these are engaged in building battleships which cannot be put into service before 1946. The immediate and imperative need is not for battleships; the immediate and imperative need is for freighters and destroyers.

FOR the cost of one battleship, which could not be used for five years, a great many freighters and destroyers can be built and put into operation within a year—if once we buckle down and go to it. What those most concerned with the facts are urging is that work on battleships be suspended and our whole shipbuilding effort be concentrated upon turning out freighters, destroyers and the small armed boats of the corvette type. Both British and American authorities are in accord about this. It involves not only the expansion of existing shipbuilding plants but the creation of new ones.

THERE is no difficulty in getting an agreement upon the desirability of this course. The difficulty is to get a decision. There is no one in the defense organization with power to make it, and it is not one which the Navy department can make itself. It is strictly up to the President. But, while it has been strongly urged upon him and he has expressed his approval, the necessary action has not been taken. Meanwhile those who best know the situation worry very greatly.

WITH the coming of spring, the sinking of British shipping are again assuming alarming proportions, and, within the next few months, unless we wholeheartedly cooperate in conveying the boats over, they are likely to increase still further. This means that great quantities of material made here will land not in England but at the bottom of the sea. (Continued On Page Five)

Vocal Groups To

State Finals Here On April 18-19

Vocal groups from Pennsylvania high schools will sing at New Castle on April 18 and 19, for state honors in seven events. The vocal ensembles are seven of the 57 state final eliminations in music and speech events conducted annually by the Pennsylvania Forensic and Music League.

The ensembles include girls' trio, boys' quartet, mixed quartet, octet, girls' ensemble, mixed ensemble, and boys' octet—the last a new event. Choice voices from large high school choirs and choruses selected by the respective high schools are arranged for competition in the vocal ensembles.

Judging these events in New Castle will be Carroll D. Kearns, director of music at the State Teachers College, Slippery Rock; Jacob A. Evanson, special supervisor of vocal music in the Pittsburgh public schools; Miss Mary H. Muldowney of the State Teachers College Music faculty at Indiana; Professor Richard W. Grant, head of the department of music, The Pennsylvania State College; and Professor Theodore M. Finney, head of the department of music appreciation at the University of Pittsburgh.

The 1940 state winners in these events included vocal ensembles from Point Marion, Hershey Industrial, California, Steelton, Norristown, and Oil City high schools.

ocean. The truth is, naval authorities say, the widely published notion that in the last World War the Allies lacked the submarines is not well founded. We didn't lack the submarine in that war; we just out-built it.

IN August before the armistice the loss of American shipping alone from sinkings was very heavy. Since that war no effective anti-submarine weapon or device has been developed. Today the best estimate places the number of German submarines at between 500 and 800. Information that can be relied upon is that the Germans now are turning out eight submarines a week. There is, it is said, no difficulty about obtaining submarine crews. For one thing, the rest of the German fleet is practically immobilized; for another, the submarine crews are paid extra wages, given bonuses, medals and other marks of Nazi esteem.

MOST of the sinkings now are about 400 miles off the coast of Ireland. The reason they are large is that the British are unable to provide adequate convoys. Sometimes the sole protection of a group of freighters will be an armed passenger ship. The submarines come up inside the convoy and shoot the ships like birds. It is unthinkable that, with the steadily growing production of supplies for the British, this country should not adopt a course that will insure delivery. This means small freighters and destroyers. The battleships can wait. That is the argument, and it is hard to see an answer to it.

tion to the Japs' claims and the Japs know it.

"The Japs' scheme is to finish off all Occidental influence on their part of the globe, land and water—Germany's influence included.

"Heir Hitler talks about a 'new order'.

A Trifle One-Sided
"The Mikado talks about 'Pan-Asiatic co-operation.' That is the rest of Asia's to produce raw materials. Insular Japan hasn't the room or soil or sources to produce 'em. But the Japs are to process the raw stuff. In other words, they're to boss the job and scoop in 99 per cent of the profits. The rest of us are to be the hewers of wood and drawers of water.

"What we non-Jap Asiatics are afraid of is that we'll get nothing but the 'oo' with the Japs getting all the 'operation'.

"However, that's distinct from the question of war between the United States, Japan and Germany. "Uncle Sam's strong point is this: "Germany desperately desires a Jap-American war and Japan desperately desires a German-American war, but Germany doesn't want to start it for Japan's benefit and Japan doesn't want to start it for Germany's benefit.

"It's a queer conflict of interests but a mighty nice one from the American standpoint."

CANCER OF THE BREAST NOW BEING RAPIDLY CONQUERED

During April, aside as cancer control month by the medical associations, it is to be hoped that the information made available to the public will dispose of many of the harmful old ideas about cancer.

There was a time when cancer meant only one thing—death. I might go further and say "painful death." But that isn't so any longer. Today cancer is preventable and it is curable when treatment begins before the last stages. We can cut down the ravages of cancer if only persons are properly informed about it and enable doctors to detect the disease in the early stages.

For example, the number of cured cases of cancer of the breast has increased more than 30 per cent in the last 20 years. Practically every one of those cures was made possible because the victim submitted to treatment by a competent doctor before the disease had progressed to advanced stages. That is the only answer to the cancer problem—early diagnosis and conventional treatment.

The world is full of people who sit waiting for medical science to hit upon some drug or preparation that will combat or cure all cancer at any stage. Every now and then it is excited when some man comes out with the announcement that he has a drug cure-all for cancer. But investigation shows either that he is a charlatan, or is mistaken.

Medical men today don't expect anyone to hit upon a sure cure drug for all cancer. The reason is that there are many different kinds of cancer, and each of these types would probably need a different drug.

Fortunately, nearly every known type of cancer responds to the treatment devised for cases detected in the early stages. It is for this reason that cancer clinics have been opened all over the United States and Canada. In the U. S. there were only 13 of these clinics in 1938. Ten years later this number had grown to 158 and last fall there were 354. Their work must be credited for the large increase in the number of cured cases. As more such clinics open, and as more people become aware of what cancer is and what can be done to cure it, the number of cures will increase proportionately.

One hospital in New York has a record of 700 cases of cured cancer of the breast. Its records show that in 1920 women were slow about coming for advice about breast tumors or lumps. The average size of a tumor at first examination in those days was two and a half inches in diameter. Today the average lump in the breast is an inch and a half when the patient comes for first treatment. If more women would come in for examination immediately after they notice a lump in the breast, cancer in this organ would rapidly decline.

Breast cancer is by no means the only type that is being conquered. Twenty years ago cancer of the tonsil was considered hopeless. Today 20 per cent of all cases are cured, and more certainly would be if doctors could get at them sooner. Cancer of the tongue was once considered certainly fatal. Now 25 per cent of the cases are cured.

Million Acres In Wildlife Refuge System Of State

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 4.—Pennsylvania's wildlife refuge system, extending over more than 1,000,000 acres, is the most extensive and widely scattered of any state in the Union, according to Seth Gordon, executive director of the Pennsylvania Game Commission.

Gordon said the state "was shot-out" when the refuge system was launched. The game supply was depleted and valuable fur-bearers had become extinct.

"Today," he said, "the Pennsylvania Game Commission owns over 650,000 acres, scattered throughout 59 counties, and has under contract for purchase more than 50,000 additional acres, so that its total land management responsibility, including leased acreage, totals more than 1,000,000 acres."

"The commission is now spending almost $600,000 annually on its land and refuge program, part of which is federal money."

Babson Discusses Method Of Solving U. S. Unemployment

By ROGER W. BABSON

Copyright—1941—Publishers Financial

Bureau, Inc.

RICHMOND, Va., April 4—Naturally, I get a lot of letters from readers, and most of them are good letters. I often wish that space would allow me to quote from at least one every week, but I fear

this would get me into too much trouble! I, however, must quote

from a letter recently received from M. C. Yates

of Pueblo, Colorado.

The gist of the letter is as follows:

Using Spare Time

"I am employed in the steel mill here in Pueblo—have worked for the company 15 years. My father died when I was six years of age. I never hired out as a carpenter, although

I have spent many hours reading books on carpentry work. You may call it my hobby, as, of course, I have not neglected the processes of steel making and blast furnace practice which are my main jobs.

I enclose snapshots of three homes

I have built during my spare time, and am about ready to start on another. They are modern to the last minute and the two latest were sold before completion."

During the summer months I go to work in the mill at 6 a. m.—am let out at 3 p. m. and start work on my new house at 3:30 p. m., working until dark or perhaps until 9 p. m. every night for five days.

When I have a day or two off, I average 14 hours per day at work on my new house. Time passes very fast for me. I wonder what could be accomplished if the people in this free country would quit worrying and put their hearts in their regular jobs and their spare time into something constructive?"

Rebuilding Old Houses

I think this is a wonderful idea, but it need not be limited to building new houses. Spare time could also be used in providing the family with food from a garden, or clothes from a work bench. There also is a great opportunity in buying up and fixing over old houses for those who will study and take up, as a hobby, carpentry and painting.

Recently, I was at an auction in Boston and saw a four-story brick house with a furnace and a bathroom sell—free and clear of debt—

for $1500. It was within three minutes walk of the Statler hotel and the Public Gardens. It was bought by someone who will fix it up in his spare time and get a good rent for $8500. I understand that there are thousands of such bargains in Boston and other older cities.

What About Taxes?

Some "smart" reader will say,

"This program would be okay if we didn't have to pay taxes." Well, I will answer that comment by quoting some more from Mr. Yates' letter. Says he:

"A neighbor who ridicules my home-building program always says

when I start a new house, 'Well, you will have two houses to pay taxes on now, instead of only one.'

My answer to him is: 'The difference between me and a smart man is that a smart man tries to figure out how he can get out of paying taxes, while I use the same time in figuring a way to pay them.' What

America needs is more elbow grease and less belly-aching. And this is the only way we can lick Hitler."

Organizing Labor vs. Organizing

Yourself

I believe in collective bargaining.

Wage workers have as much right to get together and bargain collectively through the president of their union as have the stockholders through the president of the company. On the other hand, when all industry is organized, the raising of wages will do no good, while the shortening of hours will surely raise prices. Wage workers will have to pay more for everything they buy.

All of us get richer only as more is produced. Surely, only as my employer produces more is there more for him to divide with you and me.

Instead, however, of trying to reform the labor unions, or upset the

New Deal, perhaps Brother Yates

has the solution to the problem.

This is to quit grumbling, conform to existing labor standards, but use one's spare time in home constructime work. When showing Yates' letter to a prominent Baltimore attorney, he replied: 'An old German lady once came to my office for help in settling her husband's estate, amounting to about $40,000. Among other things she told me that he had never received more than $15 per week in his life; but through her thrift and his spare-time work, they had built 12 houses. These they rented for about $20 per month.

Remember, however, that the $15 per week built only the first one or two houses. It was the rents which built the others.' The biggest gold mine is compound interest.

Profit Taxes For Labor

I notice that Mrs. Roosevelt has suggested starting an excess profit tax for wage workers. The scheme is to have all workers put their increased weekly wages into the new

U. S. Savings War Bonds. This is not a bad idea; but would it not be better to have this money put into a bank to be used only for building a new home after peace is declared?

Something surely will be speeded

then to prevent a terrible business depression with the accompanying unemployment. The time to prepare for this is now. Here is the way that the wage workers, who will be the worst sufferers, can ward it off. Remember that when you build a house, you help the wage workers of 27 different industries.

What we all want is security and stability. Both of these things will come only through working more hours, saving more money and developing ourselves. By this I mean self-improvement—spiritually, physically and mentally. Here is a practical way to get security for your-

Shenango Play Is Notable Hit

"Aunt Susie Shoots The Works" Entertains Near Capacity Crowd Thursday

In county scholastic theatrical circles, "Aunt Susie Shoots The Works" deserves a spot right up front.

Before a near capacity crowd that was entertained from start to finish, Shenango Township High's junior class presented the three-act mystery farce on Thursday night.

The play gripped the audience from the time the curtain was hoisted. By climax time, the crowd was enthusiastic in its continued laughter.

Aunt Susie Stowe was played to the "h" by Maxine Swetel. The mysterious and hair-raising events centered around the mad-hating spinster who lived alone. Aunt Susie had been bequeathed a property which turned out to be a saw-axe mill. Accompanied by her favorite niece, Joy Herbert (Mary Louise Williams), the spinster set out to take over the property. From there on, the audience sat in on a series of situations that were loaded with laughs and mystery.

The play was directed by Miss Thelma Smith, who was presented with flowers. Miss Sweet was the recipient of a similar gift.

Shenango High's orchestra, under the direction of Miss Grace Gigax, supplied the musical angle.

The cast: Aunt Susie—Maxine Swetel, Joy Herbert—Mary Louise Williams.

Scarllet Deane—Doris Wood, Laura Dawson—Grace Lawrence, Madame Zola—Gladys Moore, Mrs. Edward Dunning—Mary Emma Duckworth.

Portia Lark—Florence Badger, Omar Graves—Reese Thomas, Lasalle Johnson—Richard Donley, Johnny Rogers—Bill Nagel, Slick Conway—Bill Tindall.

DAILY DOZEN

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

Care of the eyes begins at birth. When baby is born, antiseptic drops are put in the eyes.

Few people are born with perfect eyes.

There may be structural defects or abnormalities.

Squint, cross-eyes, near or farsightedness are frequent disorders. In early childhood many of these defects are correctible.

Children are seldom aware, or complain of their eye troubles.

The backward school child may be suffering from faulty vision.

Defective vision and eye strain may cause irritability and nervousness.

Strictly speaking there is no minor disease of the eye.

All eye troubles need prompt and skillful treatment.

Delay can and often does bring serious results.

Former Senator McClure Acquitted

(International News Service)

MEDIA, Pa. April 4—Former State Senator John J. McClure and six associates today stood acquitted by a jury of conspiracy charges in the Chester Water Works transaction but faced prosecution on additional counts including fraudulent conversion and cheating by false pretenses.

Warning that the commonwealth planned action on other indictments came speedily after a jury of seven men and five women returned a verdict of not guilty after 27 hours deliberation. A civil suit against sale of the Water Works also was pending.

This good neighbor policy is being too far. Last night nine of our favorite stations were drowned out by powerful Latin stations.

Mrs. Hart, who has visited every Methodist mission in the United States, is retired president of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Erie Conference and has been secretary of the Erie Conference since 1934. Mrs. Hart was called to Harrisburg by the health department to confer with them on the direction of health centers and to tell how missionaries direct their health centers.

Other features of the program were a duet by Miss Dorothy Ward and Miss Jane Rhodes of Group 5, accompanied by Alice Jean Young at the piano; a truth and consequences skit by the girls of Group 6; and a vocal solo by Mrs. Louise Burgo, representing Group 4. PARENT FEELS FINE NOW AND THANKS RETONGA

Scores Of Penna. Residents Report Happy Relief Through Its Use. Life-Long Citizen Tells Of Own Case.

Scores of well-known men and women are voluntarily coming forward with public statements praising Retonga. Among these is Mr. Christy Parent, lifelong resident of 160 Highland Ave., McKees Rocks, whose word is his bond with hundreds of friends.

"Indigestion and sluggish bowels caused my stomach to revolt at practically everything I ate," declared Mr. Parent. "Food seemed to lodge in my stomach in a lumpy, gas-forming mass that bloated me until the pressure made it difficult to breathe. At mealtime I just ate a little something to keep going. Toxic poisons bothered me until my limbs often felt stiff and sore to the touch, and I had to dose myself with harsh purgatives until my stomach felt like it had been dynamited."

Surgeon General Makes Inspection At Camp Shelby

Health And Sanitary Conditions At Camp Shelby Are Called "Splendid"

(Special To The News)

CAMP SHELBY, Miss., April 4.—Health and sanitary conditions at Camp Shelby were called "splendid" after an inspection today by the surgeon general of the United States army, Major General James C. Magee.

"I have been to Camp Shelby before, General Magee said. 'It is astonishing to see how it could grow so fast and be in such fine condition in this short time. (First troops arrived at Shelby six months ago.) Nevertheless, I almost expected it to be so, because the health record of this camp was so excellent during the last war.'"

The surgeon general described what he found in each phase of the inspection.

"The water supply is abundant and fine."

"Sewage disposal and incinerators are up-to-the-minute."

"Messes, as far as I could see, were plentiful."

"The 2,000-bed base hospital is beautifully kept, efficiently run, and excellent of morale. It is a first-class institution."

large number of men are put together.

Summing up, the general said: "We are in a much better position to receive the sick this time than in 1917."

Labor Shortage On Farms Is Possible

Secretary Light Says Trend Of Labor From Farm To Industry Is Under Way

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 4.—The trend of labor from the farm to industry will result in serious difficulties in agriculture this year, according to Secretary of Agriculture John H. Light.

Preliminary reports show that farmers are showing concern over the labor shortage and that already demand for labor exceeds the supply.

But in spite of the growing scarcity of men, Light declared that the state potato growers are in a more advantageous position than they were a year ago. The cash income from the 1940 potato crop was $12,561,000.

The state secretary attributed the advantageous position of growers in part to the grading and inspection work done by state agencies.

Apprehension, however, was felt for the corn stock when it was disclosed that infestation of the corn borer in the western and central parts of the state ran as high as 30 infested stalks to the 100.

The state secretary advised delay in corn planting and the elimination of all corn refuse before May 1. A survey of last year's crop revealed that $62,463 worth of corn was lost from a total crop valued at $12,023,277.

Another disease, upon which the agricultural department is waging war, is brooder pneumonia. Heavy losses in baby chicks have been disclosed and Light urged the adoption of strong control measures immediately.

Marriages Of Two Ellwood Girls Revealed At Delightful Party

ELLWOOD CITY, April 4.—By means of a post-nuptial party which took place at a near-by tea room, the marriage of two local girls were announced.

The post nuptial party was given by associate girl employees of the National Tube Company for Mrs. Harold M. Seyler (Esther Cook), Mrs. Seyler, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Cook, of Hazel avenue, was united in marriage to the son of Mrs. Myrtle Dawson, of Eighth street, Beaver Falls, on February 9, at East Palestine, O. The wedding was performed at the Centenary Methodist church parsonage by Rev. V. C. Jumper. Attendants were Miss Hilda Zekeli and Carlton Wilson, of Ellwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Joel Charney, of New Brighton.

After Mrs. Seyler had opened her many lovely gifts, the evening was devoted to playing cards with the attractive high score honor going to Miss Zekeli.

For refreshments, the group was seated about a cleverly appointed table and in the favors was concealed the announcement of another marriage.

"Take A Peep" was the instruction found between the feet of a tiny yellow chick which was in the center of a small umbrella-basket. The message read "Alda Newton and Robert Ewing, October 19, 1940."

Mrs. Ewing is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Newton, of College street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Ewing, of Beaver Falls. They were married by Rev. Eisenberger of the First Presbyterian church at Cumberland, Md.

Mrs. Ewing will resign her position with the National Tube Company on May 1, and will reside in Ninth street, Beaver Falls. Mrs. Ewing resigned her position on March 31. Both of the brides are graduates of the local high school and have a legion of friends and relatives.

Baptist Association Marks Anniversary

ELLWOOD CITY, April 4.—To celebrate the 70th anniversary of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Baptist church, members of Missionary societies of the Beaver Baptist Association assembled on Thursday afternoon at the local church.

More than 125 women of the district attended the highly impressive service with Mrs. Stanley Frew presiding. Mrs. B. G. Osterhouse, Mrs. Clyde Burns and Mrs. Frank Klindienst participated in the opening devotional service. An antiphonal service high lighted the service during which each decade was represented by a woman dressed in the style of that period beginning with 1881 and continuing until 1941 and each placed a lighted candle in the altar candelabra.

Rev. Paul Metzger, returned missionary to the Belinga Congo, was the principal speaker and he brought a most fitting anniversary address.

An informal social hour followed with tea and other dainty refreshments being served by women of the hostess church.

Girls Scouts Will Close All
Transactions This Week;
Troop 1 Is Leading In Sale

"Thanks to the splendid work done by the scouts, with the tireless help of leaders and troop committee members, the girl scout cookie sale has been the most successful one we've ever had," said Miss Martha Bigley, chairman, today. The people of New Castle have been most enthusiastic in their reception of the cookies.

Troop 1, under the leadership of Mrs. Leroy Shoaff has moved up into the lead late reports indicated, with an average of about 30 boxes per scout. Troop 15, Truman Hastings, leader, is second with an average sale of 20 boxes a scout is their credit, and Troop 20, Miss Anne Colella, leader, is a close third, averaging 19 plus boxes per scout. Troops 3, 6 and 7 are next, with good reports from all the troops and several splendid individual scores.

Miss Bigley stated that the goal of 5000 boxes had been reached easily, and the committee expected to finish up this week. To qualify for the troop prizes for first and second place, accounts must be settled in full by Saturday noon of this week," Miss Bigley added, "but troops are checking in promptly so we feel sure of finishing on time." A few remaining boxes are at the girl scout office to fill reorders, telephone 1892 and cookie money should be turned in at the office promptly," Miss Bigley concluded.

News And Views From Pennsylvania Capital

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, April 3.—With the 1941 legislature politically divided, it is expected that representatives of the Democratic House and the Republican Senate will soon confer on means of settling some of their differences. Both Republicans and Democrats are agreed on the need for passing some legislation. In numerous cases, almost identical bills have been introduced in each house, but sponsored by opposing party members. With the session more than half gone the two parties are expected to pool their interests on bills on which they are both agreed.

Compromises will loom large also in the final action taken on important legislation before the session adjourns sine die. The Democrats, with their control of the House, are able to hold up appropriation bills. On the other hand, the Republican Senate can forestall the enactment of any Democratic-sponsored legislation. Thus, for example, the Democrats may be willing to approve the administration's commerce department appropriation, provided the Republicans in the Senate place their stamp of approval on the Woodring-Moul milk regulation bill.

John D. M. Hamilton, former national Republican committee chairman who managed the presidential campaign of Alf M. Landon in 1936, may take up residence in Pennsylvania. The Kansan has become a request for Pennsylvania auto license plates to the state highway department, which in turn passed it on to the revenue department, which handles such matters.

A strenuous attempt is being made to have enacted at this session House bill 165 which increases the salaries of fourth class district school teachers. There has never been any dispute in the legislature over the need for this legislation, but somehow the legislation has never been passed, largely because of the additional expense. A fourth class district school teacher in a letter to the Pennsylvania State Education Association, stated the teachers' case by pointing out that he had been employed four years at an average salary of $800 for eight months.

"This is the lowest per year salary of any class of workers," the teacher wrote. He added that last year he earned $100 during the four-month summer vacation. Then he continued: "The town street keeper receives $1200, the school janitor and garbage man $1200 each, and the several rural mail carriers get about $1800 each." Bill 165 would give the teachers a living wage, says its sponsor, Rep. J. Noble Hirsch (D) Schuylkill. It would increase the salaries of grade school teachers to $1000 a year and high school teachers to $1200, and provide for four annual increments of $100 each. These salaries prevail now in fourth class school districts.

Over Million Dollars Needed To Operate City Schools One Year

As a taxpayer you should know something about where your tax dollar goes after you have paid it. Undoubtedly you know where your local governmental bodies raise the money, that comes from you. But how much do you know about where the tax dollar goes after you have paid it?

Your heaviest tax load in your local government is your school tax bill. Your school board has just adopted the budget for the year beginning July 7, 1941, and the money that goes into that budget is money you paid. Of course the budget was on display in the office of the secretary of schools for 30 days but like your neighbor and like all the rest of the taxpayers you couldn't go around to see what was being done.

Here It Is

Because we believe you should know where your school tax money goes we are presenting today a breakdown of the budget which has been prepared by School Director Clyde M. Whittaker.

First, the budget total for the school year of 1941-42 amounts to $1,075,606 which is a lot of money in any country. That represents about $22 for every man, woman and child in New Castle. That means that your school system is costing you $246.94 per day. It will cost $122.79 for each of the 24 hours of every day, or approximately $2.05 per minute. Minutes add up fast and so do the costs.

The $1,075,606 represents the money to be spent in one school year for the payment of teachers, principals, clerical force, janitors, retiring of debt service, text books, supplies, light and power, fixed charges, insurance, heat and a lot of miscellaneous items.

First, there are 419 employees in the school system. Actually there are only 410 full time employees, the other nine being enumerators who work a few weeks in the summer and are paid for each name enumerated in the school census.

On A Dollar Basis

For a moment let's forget about the grand total of $1,075,606 and put the picture on a dollar basis. Let's have the total represented by one dollar and we will see what portion of the dollar goes to each item of expense.

First the salaries and wages of the 419 employees totals $748,408 for the year. This means that of the tax dollar you pay in 69.58 cents go for salaries and wages or 69.58 per cent.

We had to build a number of schools some years ago and that meant bond issues. The bonded indebtedness of the school system at the beginning of the school year will be $1,821,000 and those bonds are a lien against your properties, as well as the school buildings.

In the coming school year the board will pay $187,013 out for debt service of which $102,000 will be for the retirement of bonds, $79,713 for interest, $5000 for state tax and $300 for refunds. That accounts for 17.39 cents out of your tax dollar or 17.39 per cent of the total.

It may give you some idea of the money that is actually not under control of the school board when you add the salaries and wages and debt service. They total $935,421 of the entire budget, or 86.97 per cent of the total. The school board can do nothing about lowering costs, except in wages not set down by the school code. The salaries of principals, supervisors and teachers are specified by law and the bonds are a lien that must be paid.

Other Expenses

What balance is left of the budget after the salaries, wages and debt service are cared for is spent in a number of ways. There must be supplies. Pencils, paper, erasers, pens, inks, janitorial supplies and the rest of them will cost $27,357 or 2.54 per cent of your tax dollar.

The state requires the board to put in $19,000 as this district's share of the teachers' retirement fund and that means 1.77 per cent of that tax dollar.

Pupils have to have books to study and there are books to buy each year. This year's book cost will be $18,427 or 1.71 per cent of the tax dollar.

Buildings have to be heated and the estimated cost of coal is $16,422 or 1.53 per cent of your tax dollar.

Buildings must be lighted and motors have to have power and this will cost $15,100 or 1.4 per cent of your tax dollar.

Maintenance materials that will be needed in the schools during the year come to $13,000 or 1.4 per cent of your tax dollar.

For the collection and disbursement of taxes the cost will be $9,190 or .85 per cent of your tax dollar.

Buildings must be insured and workman's compensation has to be carried. This means $5800 or .54 per cent of your tax dollar.

Miscellaneous plant operation costs will be $4,948 or .4 per cent of your tax dollar.

Much water is needed for boilers, for lawns and for those drinks at recess for thirsty youngsters. This will cost $3580 or .36 per cent of your tax dollar.

Capital outlay is set down at $2,080, a small item, but it means .2 per cent of your tax dollar.

Other miscellaneous expenses are listed at $2,005 or .19 per cent of your tax dollar. Finally the cost of the telephones is listed at $1,567 or .14 per cent of your tax dollar.

As a final picture of your school system perhaps you should know how the 419 employees are divided. The teaching force numbers 314, and to this add one superintendent, two supervisors, nine principals, one medical inspector, two nurses, one dentist, one school police and attendance officer, one treasurer, one auditor, one solicitor, nine enumerators (part time), one superintendent of buildings and grounds, five employees in the secretary's office, three in the superintendent's office, 11 clerks in buildings, 52 janitors, helpers and truck drivers, five maintenance men.

It's a big business, this school business. Your budget shows it and a study of the breakdown presented above may help you to get a clearer picture of what happens to your tax dollar after the collector gets it.

On Court House Hill

The proposed bowling battle between the Lawrence county court house and the Beaver county court house has reached the negotiation stage. Manager Orville Potter for Lawrence county keglers has offered to go to Beaver county with a five-man or a six-man team. Beaver county wants him to bring down 25 or 30 bowlers and have a dinner after the match. That's out for there aren't that many good bowlers in the court house and the bar combined.

Potter wants a home and home series arranged with the first match being played in Beaver county. Perhaps in a couple of weeks the battle of the negotiators will finish and the battle on the alleys get underway.

County Controller Frank W. Hill has prepared a summary of the costs of county government as paid from the general fund and for the month of March. The total money spent for you during the month amounted to $24,138.97.

The county solicitor's office cost $200. Court house maintenance cost $1565.38. This represents salaries of the building superintendent, janitors, supplies, repairs, gas and water, electricity, coal and incidental expenses.

The county controller's office cost $1021.36 which represents salaries, advertising, stationery, postage and equipment and telephone.

The register and recorder's office cost $1618.38 which represents salaries, dockets, equipment, postage, printing and stationery, advertising and repairs.

General administration cost $110.40. The sheriff's office cost $1214.83 which represents salaries, traveling expenses, repairs, investigators and insurance. The county jail cost $747.34 which represents salaries, drugs, physicians and dentist, boarding prisoners, gas and water.

The coroner's office cost $95.20. The prothonotary's office cost $967.21, almost all of it representing salaries.

The district attorney and county detective's office cost $969.66 which represents for the most part salaries. Other costs included traveling expense, telephone bill and electricity.

The law library cost $114.15. Court costs amounted to $2705.60. This represents salaries of tipstaves, jury commissioners, interpreters, stenographer, viewers, postage, printing and stationery, witness costs and incidentals.

Justices and aldermen got $227.35, and constables got $177.55. The probation and parole office got $748.61, which represents salaries, traveling expenses, maintenance of children, clothing and shoes, and incidentals.

Penal institutions cost $1584.40. Of this, the eastern penitentiary got $19.84, the Pennsylvania Industrial school at Huntingdon got $407.75, the training school at Morgantown got $116.32, State Industrial Home for Women at Muncy got $48.77 and the Western penitentiary got $991.72. Non-county institutions got $346.87. Of this Fairview got $181.37, Polk State School $119.98, Allentown state hospital $45.52.

Maintenance of children cost $182.76, roads and bridges $50.53, county superintendent of schools $99.95, fire insurance $113.38.

The hall of the first floor has a clean face again. Superintendent Cliff James and his crew have washed the walls. There is but one office in the building that needs paint and that is the sheriff's office. The present arrangement is tri-color, counting the spots of new plaster.

City To Aid Greek Cause On April 22

Ladies Of St. George's Church Prepare For Cathedral Party

Daily news accounts of Greek army triumphs are spurring preparations which women of St. George's Greek Orthodox church are making for their Greek War Relief Fund benefit party in the Cathedral April 22.

"Every time we hear of a victory, it makes us want to plan harder to make this local celebration a success," one of the ladies' committee heads said.

The ballroom will be taken over on the 22nd and hundreds are expected to dance, enjoy cards and otherwise pass an entertaining evening.

Proceeds of the affair will go direct to the New Castle unit of the Greek War Relief Fund. A benefit last week helped raise part of the million dollar quota the nation's motion picture men promised to provide.

But if planes come first, why are plane workers paid 10 cents an hour less than automobile workers and 22 cents less than steel workers?

RIGHT ON THE JOB

We were quite interested in a news item not so long ago in which it was noted that a girl taking a bath was overcome by gas. The account continued:

"Miss Blank owes her life to the watchfulness of John P. Smith, elevator boy, and George Brown, janitor of the apartment where she resided."

Correct this sentence: "His chief concern is not to hold his job or win power," said the critic, "but to do what is best for his country."

A statesman is one who goes ahead and does what the people will clamor for him to do this time next year.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Remodeling Of St. Margaret's Church Near Completion

Liturgical Design Being Used To Remodel Main And Side Altars Of Catholic Church

Redecoration of St. Margaret's Catholic church, which was begun March 13, is now practically completed. The main altar has been remodeled in liturgical design, comprising the altar table with grained and tabernacle superimposed, with the six gold candle stands upon the grained. Over the altar a rich canopy has been erected, with a dorsal of maroon velvet in the background. Over the dorsal will be suspended a life size crucifix finished in old ivory.

New furniture for the sanctuary along with a remodeled communion railing finished in old ivory has been installed. The ceiling and walls have been redecorated in keeping with the architecture of the church, and the stations of the cross are finished in a marble and tan effect with a blue background.

The side altars are remodeled to match the main altar, and the statues are set off by a tapestry effect of individual design. Six new lighting fixtures of liturgical design are to be hung from individual ceiling supports.

The work is being executed by a decorating studio of which a former New Castle resident, Albert U. Rozzi, is the director. He received his early training with the Leonardo Da Vinci Studios in New York City for five years and finished off his course with one year of designing at Carnegie Tech in Pittsburgh.

Bill Would Authorize Redistricting Of Election Districts In Pennsylvania

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, April 4.—A complete redistricting of the more than 8,000 election districts in the state will be made if a bill reported out of committee in the house is enacted into law. It is backed by the local government commission and is similar to one which failed of passage in 1939.

The measure is sponsored by Reps. Albert S. Readinger (D) Berks and Lloyd H. Wood (R) Montgomery and will be given first reading on Monday when the legislature reconvenes. The bill provides that "no borough or township and no ward of any city, borough or township and no election district may hereafter be divided or redivided to form two or more districts unless such borough, township, ward or election district shall have more than 1,000 registered electors," with certain exceptions due to unusual distances.

Boroughs, townships and wards having more than 1,000 voters and less than 1800 would be divided into two districts as nearly equal in number as possible. Those with more than 1800 voters would be divided into "a number of election districts which shall not be less than one for each 800 registered electors not more than one for each 600 registered electors."

No borough, township, ward or election district would be required, however, to be divided or redivided because it contained more than 1,000 voters. New election districts would be drawn up by county boards of elections in compliance with the act and submitted to courts of quarter sessions not later than September 1, 1941. A public hearing would then be held by the court and exceptions heard. The court would issue an order fixing the new election district boundaries. The new districts would not come into effect until after the fall elections.

Palm Sunday To Be Observed In Catholic Churches

Blessing And Distribution Of Palms Will Take Place In Masses Sunday Morning

On Sunday, April 6, the Roman Catholic churches of this city will observe Palm Sunday. Palm Sunday is so called because palms are solemnly blessed on this day and distributed in memory of our Lord's entry into Jerusalem.

In all of the Catholic churches palms will be blessed and distributed at the masses. Several of the churches will note a change of the time of masses, due to the blessing of palms before the mass. Following is the schedule for the blessing of the palms and time of masses for the Catholic churches:

St. Joseph's—6, 8, 9:45, blessing of palms followed by mass; last mass at 11:45 o'clock.

St. Mary's—7, 8:30, 9:45, palms blessed before 11 o'clock mass; last mass 12 o'clock.

St. Philip and James—8 o'clock (palms blessed at mass); last mass 10:30 o'clock.

St. Lucy—Palms blessed before 8:30 o'clock mass; 10:30 o'clock last mass, distribution at both masses.

St. Margaret—8:30 o'clock, blessing of palms and mass; 10:30 o'clock, last mass; distribution both masses.

St. Vitus—7:00 o'clock mass and blessing of palms, 9:30 and 11 o'clock.

Madonna—8 o'clock, blessing of palms and mass; 10:30 o'clock.

St. John the Baptist Maronite—Mass at 10 o'clock, blessing of palms and distribution.

St. Michael's—8 o'clock and 10:30 o'clock; blessing of palms at 10 o'clock before last mass.

Preventable Accidents Are Costly To Industry

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, April 4.—Strikes are not as costly to national defense needs as preventable accidents, Pennsylvania's Secretary of Labor Lewis G. Hines declared Thursday.

Speaking before the Western Pennsylvania Regional Safety Engineering Conference, he said:

"In Pennsylvania last year the man days lost due to industrial strife was considerably less than estimated loss of man days from personal injuries which were largely preventable."

It is estimated there were 18 man days lost through industrial injuries to every man day lost because of industrial disputes."

Compensation for industrial injuries in 1940 was $13,492,623, he reported, adding:

"As greatly as we deplore the handicap to production which is produced by strikes an examination of our department records clearly shows that there is too much publicity in magnifying one element of industrial failure, and not sufficiently stressing another."

Hines declared that loss of work from accidents which could have been prevented, amounts "almost to criminal negligence."

Pioneer Oil Man Dies At Butler

Chas. F. Hosford, Sr., Dies At Age Of 93 Years—Married While In New Castle

(International News Service)
BUTLER, Pa., April 4.—Death today had claimed another of western Pennsylvania's pioneer oil men, Charles F. Hosford, Sr., 93, father of the former chairman of the Federal Coal Commission.

The elder Hosford, who came to the Pennsylvania oil fields in the early days of the Titusville and Pleasantville drilling excitement, later became a hotel proprietor in Butler. He shared his oil industry and hotel interests for years.

He was born in Nunda, N. Y., and moved to Jamestown, N. Y., at the age of four. When Petrolia first began to develop into an oil center, Hosford came to Butler county. He became a Butler resident in 1874 and, except for oil ventures in the West Virginia fields, remained there the rest of his life.

While in the oil business at New Castle, he married Mary Emma Reiber, sister of former Judge Aaron E. Reiber of Butler county. Following her death he married May Katherine Reiber, a cousin of his first wife, who also preceded him in death.

Surviving are his son, Charles F. Hosford, Jr., former chairman of the U. S. Coal Commission, three grandchildren and a step-sister, Mrs. Grace Lindquist, Portland, Ind.

ous refreshments were served by Mrs. Syphrit assisted by Mrs. Gabe Thompson, Mrs. Harold Steffler and Mrs. Lester Wagner to the 40 guests present.

INSTALLATION SERVICE.
A very impressive installation service was held by members of the Y. P. C. U. of the U. P. church Sabbath evening, Mrs. Herbert Sturgeon presided at the service. A gospel team was present from the Beaver Methodist church and took part in the program. Clair Steffler, a trustee of the church, installed the following officers, president, Mrs. Elmer Nevin; vice president, George Steffler; secretary, Mary West; treasurer, Lloyd Steffler, and counselor, Fay Wagner.

Berlin Claims British Troops Retreat In Libya

(International News Service)
BERLIN, April 4.—British troops are in "precipitate retreat north of Bengazi in Libya," the German supreme command asserted today.

German and Italian troops have taken Agedabia and Zuetina and continue pursuit of the British forces who evacuated Bengazi, a communiqué said.

"The number of prisoners taken and the number of armored and unarmored motor vehicles taken is considerable," said Berlin. "Our losses were extraordinarily small."

Nature balances things; and when the North has a mild winter, people can spare a few blankets for relatives who are staying at winter resorts.

All America is raving about a black convertible priced at $4685 at the factory—and wrathfully asking why designers can't make cheap cars equally swanky.

Axis Disillusions Are Mounting In World

By J. C. OESTREICHER
International News Service Foreign Editor

Extraordinary unanimity of the American republics in their seizure of Axis ships to prevent or punish sabotage caused consternation in Berlin and destroyed another myth.

Ever since the war began, Nazi propagandists have harped upon the theme that the Americas had a weak, soft under side. They have insisted upon the falsity and impossibility of any real Pan-American solidarity in time of crisis.

Many writers and travelers to South and Central America have told in detail of German colonies scattered through the republics down under. They have emphasized the important influence of German trade and industry on this side of the Atlantic. In particular, they have stressed the menace inherent in the fact that a German-controlled air line operates in Ecuador.

Angle Overlooked. But all overlooked the tremendously important angle that the governments in control, almost without exception, are free of European influence. They may not be genuinely democratic—Latin America and politics have always been dynamic and on the "leader principle." But they are home-grown regimes, neutral in trade and business and equally friendly to marks, pound sterling and dollars—and definitely committed to the defense and independence of this hemisphere.

So for the first time South American policies were exoriated in Berlin Wednesday and for the first time the Wilhelmstrasse had to lump the American nations together in naming President Roosevelt as "chief instigator of a wild west act of violence."

By sheer coincidence, this particular Latin American myth was shattered in the midst of a period marked by other Axis disillusions.

Another Theory Smashed. The theory that a fleet built for speed alone could render useless the British navy's gunnery was smashed when Admiral Sir Andrew Browne Cunningham knocked out seven or eight Italian ships in the Ionian sea.

The idea long cherished in Berlin that threats of "protective invasion" could crumple any Balkan nation went by the board in Yugoslavia. The illusion the Royal Air Force is too chivalrous to bomb without restriction disappeared with official announcement that Mannheim, a major cog in the German industrial machine, is now a "Coventry." And that means countless dead and injured and above mere material destruction.

Popular notions built up over patient months and years are toppling. More startling changes in popular belief may be just over the horizon.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1940 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

This story of an advertising man being made the public relations officer at West Point is one of those little spring Johnny jump-ups in the news which might start people thinking a bit, if they would take time out for this unique exercise. The appointee, Lieutenant Colonel Meade Wildrick, has been for the last few years vice-president of the New York City advertising firm of Birmingham, Castleman & Pierce, Inc., having previously built a distinguished career in the army. He is an officer of high attainment and, by all accounts, of similar standing in the advertising world.

There are no doubt some brass hats in the army who would run a temperature over this business of having the army communicate with the public through a public relations officer, which it does now at Washington as well as West Point. Old Commodore Vanderbilt said "the public be damned," but in the last few decades we have revised our ideas about that, both in war and peace.

It is only since the last big war that we thought of "public relations counsel" as a euphemism for "press agent." It has had some unpleasant connotations to newspapermen, on guard against poachers on newspaper space, but the phrase now seems to have made the grade, possibly because the public has become more clearly established as an entity with whom it is advisable to have pleasant working relations if you want to get anywhere.

And this goes particularly in the days of war and rumors of war, because in this age even just a little sand-lot war involves all the public as never before in all history. Officers of public relations are going to be mighty important army functionaries from now. If the army of the North had had a good public relations officer in the Civil war, the struggle might have been greatly shortened and many thousands of lives might have been saved.

In 1861 Lincoln picked General Brinton McClellan to succeed the aged General Winfield Scott, retiring as head of the army. McClellan was gifted, erratic, ambitious, but a bit showy and tactless, with a penchant for getting in bad with all hands. Lincoln correctly measured his ability and loyalty and was infinitely patient with his fumble-footed approach to anything that had to do with the public.

Fire-eating Abolitionists were yelling for a big slam-ouag war, with no holds barred. Amateur soldiers with political backing were pressing hard for commissions and some of them were getting them. Ravenous job-seekers were swarming into all the services of supply and equipment and Washington was crawling with schemers, defeatists and ultra-vigilantes of Lincoln's army. McClellan and the conduct of the war in general.

It was a day of most intemperate language in public controversy, with invectives running hog-wild and even such a clear-headed man as Wendell Phillips caught in this maelstrom of vituperation, found that Lincoln was falling in the conduct of the war, and appraised him as a small man, incapable of meeting this test of history.

Lincoln, as now revealed by the record of those years, had a clear, definitely conceived plan which took into account many delicately poised issues which were not explained then but which could have been put before the public by a competent public relations officer. It is unquestionably true that the general public ignorance and misapprehension fed the fires of confusion, muddling and blundering which thwarted the Northern effort in the opening years of the war.

With an intelligent liaison with the public, General McClellan might have done much better. But he had a dog-fight behind his own lines to contend with, as well as a war, and Lincoln had to replace him by General Halleck. He continued on duty but later was superseded by Burnside, withdrew angrily from the army and denounced the conduct of the war as a total failure. He ran against Lincoln for the presidency in 1864, took a beating and continued for years his public insistence that he had been misunderstood. He probably had been. A good press agent would have helped.

Lincoln certainly could have used a public relations officer in that notorious Trent affair. A federal gunboat had snatched a couple of Confederate commissioners from a British packet. England was calling us a lot of swine and threatening to blow us right off the map if we didn't let a lot of dirt and do it pronto. The virulence of the British kick-back made our people sear. There was a grade-A national uproar, demanding war before sundown.

Lincoln murmured something about "one war at a time, gentlemen," stalled, temporized and finally kissed the whole thing off, painlessly, but not until he had been blackguarded all up and down the country as a quitter and a coward. This single incident, through lack of means of disseminating precise information, contributed to the menace of a disaffection and division in a most critical hour.

Everything was comparatively simple in those days. Total defense now is primarily a civilian effort and, furthermore, civilians are combatants, under the air bombs, as they were before. Intelligent administration of public relations cannot but aid us all in understanding and co-operative, instead of ignorant and truculent trouble-makers as in the Civil war.

Polish Women Sew For Overseas Aid

One of the many things needed by the people of the countries now beleaguered by war is clothes. Every day, over the entire United States, women are busy sewing and knitting and New Castle has its full share of women who are doing the work.

One of the places where many garments are being turned out is the Polish Falcon Hall on Miller avenue where the women of the Polish Auxiliaries have a sewing room fitted up on the balcony of the hall.

Under the leadership of Mrs. John C. Wajert the women meet in the evenings and put together dresses for women and girls and clothes for very young children. Since they started their work they have produced over 1200 women's and girls' dresses, have cut out hundreds of yards of goods for other women to sew and have turned in a prodigious amount of knit goods. All of the garments prepared go to the American Red Cross and this organization distributes them. On the shelves of the sewing room are several hundred yards of cloth and these will be used up in the next few weeks.

Girl Scouts To Use Local Boys Camp This Year

Leaders Discuss Plans To Move To Lawrence County Boy Scout Camp

CAMPING SEASON TO BE DURING AUGUST

At a joint meeting of the Girl Scout Council and representatives of the local Boy Scout council, plans were discussed to move the Girl Scout camp to the Lawrence County Boy Scout camp, this year.

N. J. McCuskey, Frank Hill and Hans Drio, represented the Boy Scouts and discussed the local camp facilities with the Girl Scout leaders. Second and third week in August were decided upon as a very satisfactory time for camp due to the fact that day camp is to be held during the middle of July.

By using the Boy Scout camp, it will be possible for the Girl Scout camp director and staff to be in camp several days before the camp period. This will enable them to do everything possible to insure a full, happy and safe camping program for at least 100 of New Castle's 500 Girl Scouts.

The use of the Boy Scout camp will mean that more satisfactory arrangements can be made by the joint use of the equipment available.

Final details will be worked out jointly by the Girl Scout camp committee, headed by Miss Regina Popp and N. J. McCuskey, chairman of the Boy Scout camp committee, and his group.

Each year more girls are anxious to experience the joyous adventure of out-door living, and to help these girls save the money necessary to finance the well-trained staff and the adequately planned meals, a camp savings plan has been instituted.

Stamps costing 25 cents each, may be purchased and placed in a "bank book" which is given each depositor. These stamps accumulate over a period of time and when August comes around the scout has many quarters towards her fee. Wednesdays from 4 to 6 p. m. and Saturday mornings from 9 to 12 are Girl Scout banking hours at the office in the Greer building.

GRANT CITY

Mrs. Alfanita Johnston, who was recently confined to the Grove City hospital, is improving.

Friends of Marjorie McDevitt will be sorry to hear that she has been operated on for appendicitis at the Butler Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Dean and son, Charlie, visited recently at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. Z. Bell of the Ellwood-New Castle road, and also at the home of P. M. McGaffie of New Castle.

Those from here participating in the music contest at New Wilmington on Saturday were Bessie and Jean Wiener, Norman, John and Freda Dean, Junior Heckathorne and Jean Stoner.

Indiantown Gap Is Made Ready For Selectees

Expect About 5,000 Selectees
In Camp By July, May

Transfers

MANEUVERS ARE BEING STAGED

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa. April 4.—Army officers today said they expected "no difficulty" in handling approximately 5,000 selective service men when they arrive at Indiantown Gap "by the early part of July."

The opinion was that the draftees would arrive early in the summer and in all probability, would arrive as a unit in a single day. It was indicated the new men would be transferred from the army reception center at Fort Meade, Md.

Officials expressed the hope that the men would be transferred as a unit since such a move would expedite the training routine. Barracks accommodations were more than adequate to care for the new men, it was added.

Building Tested
"The men will have the advantage," army officers said, "because they'll be moving into buildings tested by occupancy. The guardsmen ahead of them will have found all the defects and will have had them remedied."

Meanwhile, routine training was the order of the day as the 28th division neared the end of its fourth week of intensive maneuvers.

Soldiers of the 11th infantry, weighed down with full pack and fighting equipment, hiked more than 12 miles in the first disciplinary march since arriving at camp.

The 107th field artillery moved on the firing range for gunnery practice while the 10th infantry took over the 200-yard rifle range.

Machine gun companies D, H and M of the 110th engaged in "1,000-inch scale" fire; the 112th infantry continued bayonet and grenade training and the 28th military police company practiced on the pistol range.

YOUNG PROGRESSIVES PLANS PARTY EVENT

At the Wednesday evening meeting of the Young Progressives group held in the club rooms, South Mill street, plans were made for a skating party to be held on April 15. A large crowd attended the meeting and other matters were discussed. Plans are progressing for a formal dance to be held during the month of May. Chairmen and committees will be appointed later.

The next meeting will be on Thursday, April 17.

NEW SAXOPHONE DEVICE

ELKHART, Ind.—Although he never has blown a note on a saxophone, Eugene Sander holds patent rights on an instrument with parallel keys that may revolutionize saxophone construction. May Raise Dream Highway Speed To 70 Miles An Hour

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 4.—The legal speed limit on the Pennsylvania turnpike is now expected to be raised to 70 miles an hour, provided Gov. Arthur H. James does not veto a bill enacted yesterday by the legislature.

The Senate yesterday gave final approval to the measure sponsored by Rep. Thomas J. Heatherington (D), Allegheny, and it now goes to the governor.

At present the legal speed limit for passenger cars on the turnpike is 50 miles an hour, the same as on other highways in the state. Few arrests have been made, however, for exceeding the speed limit on the turnpike.

The increased speed limit will not apply to commercial vehicles.

Pittsburgh Pirates Are 1941 Darkhorses

Manager Frankie Frisch Has Hustling Team, Lot Depends On Ailing Mound Staff

Infield All Set, Outfield Will Have Elliott, Van Robays and DiMaggio

By LASKELLE YOUNG
(International News Service Staff Writer)
SAN BERNARDINO, Cal. April 4—The team that was first in National League scoring and last in fielding in 1940—the Pittsburgh Pirates—is brewing trouble today for pre-season favorites.

Frankie Frisch, the man whose strict discipline boosted a bunch of play boys from sixth to fourth place last year in his first season as boss, is attempting to renovate Pitt's unsound inner defense and, at the same time, cure some sore arm pitchers.

If this patchwork is successful, the bold bad Pirates will lurk close to the league leaders from the outset of the pennant race.

Depends On Hurlers
Right now Frisch holds high hopes for his ailing mound hopeful—Russ Bauers. If Russ makes the grade as a starter, the old "Fordham Flash" will flash a new smile. Bauers' arm trouble started in 1939 when he won but two and lost four.

The pitching burden probably will rest on Rip Sewell, who won 16 and lost 5 last year. Joe Bowman looks like his No. 1 helper.

Other pitchers on the front line likely will be Mace Brown, Max Butcher, Dick Lananah, John Lanning, Bob Klinger and Ken Heinzelman, all leftovers from last season's staff.

While that staff admittedly isn't too stout, Frisch is gambling on finding unexpected support from the arms of Bill Clemensen, up from Syracuse; Dick Connor, from Beaumont; Arthur Dietz, another Syracuse rookie; Elmer Rambert, with the Pirates part of last season; Odis Swartz, who came up late last year from Syracuse; and Eldon Wilkie, sensational Seattle left-hander who led the coast league with a mark of 13-5.

Infield Is Set
Frisch seems set on his infield which is much the same as last season although apparently more steady. Elbie Fletcher will be at first, young Frank Gustine at second, dependable Arky Vaughn at short and Lee Handley at third.

The Pirate outfield is more than passable with Vince DiMaggio, Robert Elliott, Debs Garms, Maurice Van Robays and Lloyd Waner from last year's squad battling such promising rookies as Ed Stewart, Kalin and Yount.
Pirate catching is top-notch. Al Lopez has full recovered from his injuries of last year and is counting on catching over 100 games.
"Give this crew some dependable pitching, tighten up their inner defense and let them continue their socking and we'll be up there or thereabouts," says Frisch.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Far better to have tried and lost than to have not tried at all. This is the opinion of fans, relative to Sonny Horne, welterweight of Niles, who failed to win the amateur welterweight championship of the A. A. U. in Boston. Sonny and his trainer, Matt McGowan should be congratulated on their ascension to the final bout. Sonny was scheduled to appear here some weeks ago and had to forego fighting in The Arena because of battles in Chicago and Boston. Now that he has finished with the tourney it is hoped the Jefferson A. C. brings him to the city for the next show against a topnotcher.

Owen Fox, the city forer, stated today that tennis is on its way in that is, if repair to courts counts and repair certainly does. Work is being done at Gaston park and Rose Bowl courts.

Stern set a new Pitt indoor track mark for two miles yesterday. He went the distance in 9 minutes 48.2 seconds. The old mark was 9 minutes 51.9 seconds. Jessup won the high jump and Anderson took the 440-yard run in '53.8.

Craig Wood led the first 18-hole round in the masters tourney at Augusta, Ga., Thursday with a six-under par-66. Byron Nelson, P. C. A. champion, and Lawson Little, open champion, and Willie Goggin tied for second with a 71.

Frank Souchak, who played for Pittsburgh in 1935-37, inclusive, was added to the coaching staff of Brown today. He will handle the ends. He coached under Dr. Jock Sutherland in the latter's last season at Pitt.

Titans Open Golf Season April 18

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., April 4—Three lettermen will be on the Westminster college golf team which plays an eight-match schedule, opening with Slippery Rock on the Field club course, New Castle, Friday, April 18.
Returning to play this year are George "Scotty" McFarland, Yorker, N. Y. junior; Ted Ossoff, Oil City sophomore; and John Davis, New Wilmington senior. McFarland, shooting in the middle 80's, will probably be Coach Grover Washbaugh's choice for number one linksmen.
Other prospects for the Titans include Don Roy, former Perry high varsity player; Pittsburgh, George Campbell, Connellsville freshman; Dick Donley, Brewster, N. Y.; Howard Armstrong, Youngstown, O. freshman; and Moe Nathan, Farrell sophomore.

Baer And Nova Battle Tonight

Winner Of Bout Will Probably Get Chance With Louis

BOTH FIGHTERS ARE OVER 200 LBS.

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 4—There seems to be some slight difference of opinion about that 12-round battle between Max Baer and Lou Nova in Madison Square Garden tonight.

For instance, modest Max says: "I'll flatten that guy sure inside seven or eight rounds."
Lackadaisical Lou says: "He's the easiest guy in the world to lick. He'll be lucky to answer the bell for the sixth round."

Most of the professional fight mob say: "Baer must stop him in three or four heats or Nova will grab the Duke."

Expect Big Gate.
Promoter Mike Jacobs says: "I don't know who'll win and I care less. All I know is that it looks like the gate will gross $90,000."

Gallery Gus says: "Allus I know is I hope it's a good fight and I only wish I'm in a spot sometime where I cop 25-0-0 like they huggs is getting."

And the Broadway bookies say: "We'll lay seven or take eight on Nova." (Meaning they will give you 7 to 5 or if you want to lay the odds on Nova they'll take Baer on the short end of 8 to 5.)

Nova says further that he'd like to win for the sake of his little girl who will celebrate her second birthday tomorrow. And Max, always the sentimentalist, declares he must win for the sake of his little boy.

But the writer has a strong suspicion that both want to win for the sake of some bigger gates to come, although the 25-0-0 of a probable $70,000 net they will get for this one is not to be sneezed at.

Nova probably will weigh about 203 and Baer around 220. The difference in weights means little or nothing in this case. What does mean something is the mental attitude of the two California clouters and if we were sure of what each has in mind, we might be able to pick a winner.

Conn-Barlund Fight Tonight

Chicago Stadium Is Scene Of Heavyweight Battle, Will Be Real Test For Conn

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, April 4—With the questionable privilege of meeting Joe Louis for the heavyweight championship of the world as the prize, Billy Conn, former light heavyweight champion, will meet Gunnar Barlund, Finnish heavyweight, in a 12-round battle at the Chicago Stadium tonight before a crowd of about 15,000.
For the matter of several weeks Conn and Louis have been signed to meet in June, presumably in New York, but today Mike Jacobs announced that Barlund would be entitled to a bout with Louis if he wins.
Conn is a top-heavy favorite to win tonight's battle, because he has the advantage of youth, speed, boxing ability and the desire to fulfill his one dream of meeting Louis for the title. Barlund entertains no visions of wrestling Louis' title away, but he will have the edge in the matter of weight and ring experience. On punching ability they are about even. Barlund is expected to enter the ring at a weight of 196 against Conn's 180.

OHIO STATE DOES HALF-MILLION IN GRIDIRON SPORT

Even under a new regime, Ohio State can hardly expect to better its football finances this coming season.

The Buckeye eleven, which fell short of expectations in 1940, nevertheless attracted $500,000 worth of customers.

Boston Bruins In Title Play

(International News Service)
The hard-skating Boston Bruins today had earned the right to battle the Detroit Red Wings for the Stanley cup—emblematic of the hockey championship of the world.
The Bruins, N. H. L. champs, topped the Toronto Maple Leafs, 2 to 1, in the seventh and deciding game of the cup semi-finals before a crowd of 16,400 at Boston last night.

Assuming the role he played two years ago when he sparked the Boston squad to the championship, Mel Hill scored the winning tally in the fifteenth minute of the final canto.

Outfielder Mel Ott has been issued 1235 bases on balls in 15 years with the New York Giants.

Washabaugh Is Speaker At "Y"

Gives Fine Talk To Church League Champions, Rev. Bennet Is Toastmaster

BILL WINTER AWARDS MEDALS

The Y. M. C. A. held a most delightful banquet last night to honor the church and house league champions, with Coach Grover Washabaugh of Westminster College as the principal speaker. Places were set for 35 young men, including guests.

The dinner consisted of breaded pork chops and all the accessories and proved very delicious. With the dinner over, Rev. G. S. Bennett of the First Christian church, who has been associated with the church league for 12 years, assumed the toastmaster role and after a few very fine introductory remarks called on Coach Washabaugh as the first speaker.

Tells Of Recent Trip
The Westminster coach responded with his usual fine talk, and delighted the boys by telling them of the trip to New York, and of the fine treatment that was accorded the Westminster team by the tourney committee. He had no alibi for the Westminster defeat, but did say that he hoped for another crack at Long Island next year in the tourney if the invitation comes.

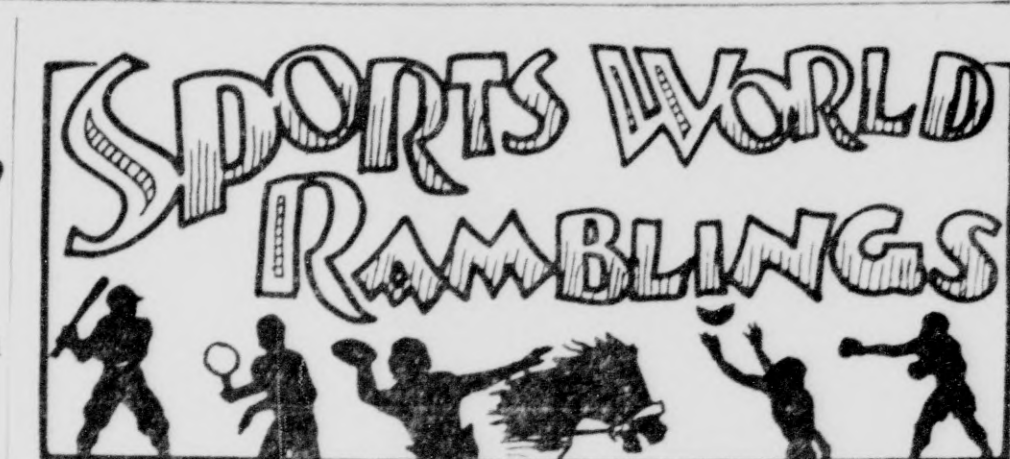

During his talk Washabaugh spoke of hobbies for boys, urged them to have clean minds, and encouraged their basketball playing as a development of strong bodies.

Awards Given Out
The only other speaker was Charles "Bugs" Walther of the News who talked very briefly and congratulated the church league champions. The banquet drew to a close with Bill Winter, physical director of the "Y" presenting the church league champions with their awards. Bob Jackson of the First U. P. team junior league champions was presented with a trophy for his team. Tony "Kane" Morgan took the awards of medals for the championship St. Vitus team and gave a fine talk of appreciation. Coach "Manny" Orth of the championship St. George Greek Class A team took the medals for his team and gave a short but very fine "thank you" speech.

The banquet proved a very fine success, it being the first time for many years that a church league dinner had been held. It will no doubt become an annual affair according to Mr. Winter. A special guest at the dinner was General Secretary Robert Meermans.

RAIS MEET TONIGHT

The National Radiator softball team will have its first meeting of the season tonight at the home of Manager Dundo Ambrosia in Shady-side at 7:30 o'clock. All of the 1940 players and any others who are interested are asked to attend the meeting.

Joseph Vincent McCarthy, the New York Yankee major league, celebrates his 53rd birthday next Wednesday. Everybody knows what he'd like for a present. The way his boys are slapping the agate around in the citrus belt, he may receive the gift by September.
Some-thing for the sports odditorium. Old Connie Mack has been directed in ball clubs for 40 years. His average is exactly 500, 2,991 victories against a similar number of setbacks.
Joe Medwick's showing in spring training is the reason for so much trumpet blaring in Flatbush. Ducky Wukky is displaying his old time form. As of yesterday, Joe had strung up 33 hits in 74 trips for a better than 440 mark.
"Red" Rolfe, Gerry Priddy, Joe Gordon and Phil Rizzuto are considered first-class, that is in baseball. Uncle Sam's selective draft league doesn't agree. The quartet has been listed in Class 3.

John Pesky, 21, and Al Mazer, 22, up with Louisville, are being mentioned in the same breath with Phil Rizzuto and Gerry Priddy. The rookies, who came up from the Piedmont League, the same circuit that uncovered the famous Yankee pair, are getting unusually rare notices.
Joe Williams, among the few Manhattaners who can't see the Dodgers emerging with the empire, says the Dodgers' biggest weakness is at second base.

Johnny Gee, the $75,000 bust gobled by the Pirates, didn't do so well in his first showing with Portland. The elongated twirler faced 15 clubbers in three frames, walking two, fanning nothing but his brow, dish-ing out four hits and watching three runners scamper across the home station.
Connie Mack says "it will take a handsome offer for me to even consider a trade for Bennie McCoy." Off his 1940 showing, who would want the Cinderella Man of baseball?

Friend Pat Robinson has forwarded the latest Broadway odds.

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 4.—The field in the annual masters golf championship followed a magician today—a big, blond magician named Craig Wood who yesterday waved his wand all over the premises to make the ball soar almost out of sight off the tees, leap dead to the green on shorter shots and into the cup with a final mere flick of his wrist. The result was a bit of hocus-focus on the scoreboard that spelled a 66 for Wood's opening round in the 72-hole tournament, so inescapably the story of the first day of this championship is a review of his amazing career, so filled with frustration and disappointment that you wonder he hasn't given up long ago. Instead, as play on the second round started today, Wood was five strokes to the good over Byron Nelson, the national professional champion; Lawson Little, open title-holder, Ben Hogan, leading money-winner of the winter, and Willie Goggin, each with a 71.

Saturday's Skating: Matinee 2-5, Evening 8-11:30.

Wood Great Golfer.

Will Wood go on to a victory this time, or will he be caught again? In fact, will he barely be out-lasted in repetition of his past performances, which make him one of the greatest golfers of the era and one of the hardest luck guys in all sports? He has come closer to winning more major titles without doing it than any other man that ever lifted a golfing club.

His 66, two strokes over the course record set by Lloyd Mangrum last year, indicated yesterday that he is doing things and about to do other things again, and one way or another the gallery is his at least as long as he stays as he is—the hottest man around right now. He three putted only one green, played eight of them in single putts, went over par on only one hole and bagged seven birdies on this tough par 72 course.

Trailing behind him and the 71 quartet came Felix Serafin and Harry Cooper with 72s; Sam Snead, Ed Dudley, Johnny Bulla and others with 73s. Horton Smith, twice winner of the Masters had 74. Bobby Jones, Sarazen and Dick Chapman, the amateur champion, had 76s; Jimmy Demaret, defending champion, 77, and Walter Hagen, the 49-year-old original master, took a 87, the highest card he's ever turned in in major competition.

JIM TURNER WANTS TO HURL TILL 40

Jim Turner, who has passed the 36 mark, wants to pitch until he is 40.

Turner, unlike many other major leaguers, watches his vitamins much in the manner of the Broadway chorine. That's one reason for his long time stand in the big show. Last season, Turner bagged 14 National League victories. He hurls for Cincinnati.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEKALL

A lot of sore backs, legs and arms are being sported this week. Lawn rolling time is here and that is an exercise that really lets a fellow know just how old he really is. Then that stooping over to prune rose bushes, picking up old leaves and then spading has its points . . . but it's fun and your work will bear its fruit this summer.

Fishermen are getting rather anxious to get into their boats and reel. To feel that certain tug at the line and with a quick jerk play the fish for all its worth. There is some good fishing around the local streams but some prefer to go away where the land is strange. That has its points too . . . one gets to see how other people live and do things and usually the old home town looks pretty good when they get back.

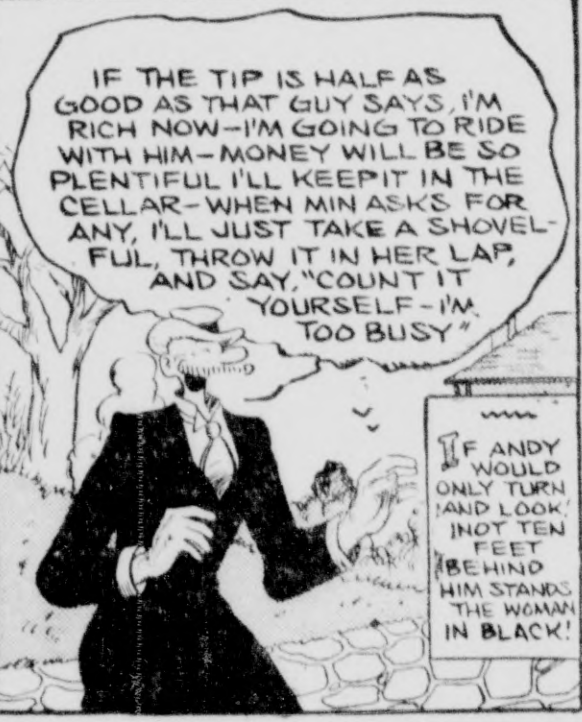

Just a little over a week and Easter Sunday will be here. That is one time of the year that is really a joy. But to thoroughly appreciate the feeling one must do certain things . . . and one of those certain things is to get into the spirit that makes the day. In other words attend a church service.

During Easter Week various churches throughout the town will offer special services . . . we should all slow down and plan on attending some of these services. We today are traveling at a great speed . . . and sometimes we are apt to forget the one who made our life possible . . . the things that have happened in the hundreds of years that came before us . . . how people suffered in order that they might follow the Christian way of life . . . it sure would be a blow to have the world go backward . . . and pledge their belief to Paganism. In a free country such as we have here . . . that could not happen . . . but in some countries this is happening . . . let's keep our heads and think and act clearly.

The Salvation Army, local office . . . would like to know if any one has any old musical instruments they would like to give away. Also horns are in demand by the Army Band . . . other brass instruments could be used also . . . look around and if you find anything that you can give away on this subject just call 1882.

During Easter Week various churches throughout the town will offer special services . . . we should all slow down and plan on attending some of these services. We today are traveling at a great speed . . . and sometimes we are apt to forget the one who made our life possible . . . the things that have happened in the hundreds of years that came before us . . . how people suffered in order that they might follow the Christian way of life . . . it sure would be a blow to have the world go backward . . . and pledge their belief to Paganism. In a free country such as we have here . . . that could not happen . . . but in some countries this is happening . . . let's keep our heads and think and act clearly.

The Salvation Army, local office . . . would like to know if any one has any old musical instruments they would like to give away. Also horns are in demand by the Army Band . . . other brass instruments could be used also . . . look around and if you find anything that you can give away on this subject just call 1882.

Question Trio In Attempt To Rob Ohio Bank

Three young men of New Castle were questioned at police headquarters late last night but were able to prove that they were not connected with an attempt to rob the New Waterford, O. Savings bank at noon Thursday. They were taken into custody by Lieutenant Kennedy, Detective Thomas and Police-men Alliger and Fleeger on the south side. The similarity between the would-be bandits' car and one owned by the local trio brought the grilling.

W. E. Ferguson, vice president of the bank, was at the bank window and the other four bank employees were eating lunch in the rear of the bank at noon Thursday.

The bandits walked into the institution and ordered Ferguson to "stick up" his hands. Instead, he fell to the floor and shouted a warning. The bandits fled outside and escaped in a black auto.

Ohio state police, Columbiana county, O. authorities and Ferguson came here last night. However, Ferguson failed to identify any of the trio as a member of the bandit gang.

The New Castle youths claimed they were in Pittsburgh while the attempt was being made to rob the Ohio bank.

Evening

The New Castle public last night heard one of Detroit's leading evangelists, Dr. John Zoller, preach at a special anniversary service the City Rescue Mission sponsored in Second U. P. church.

Tonight Dr. Zoller speaks again at 7:30. Preceding his message will be a 15-minute organ recital by Mrs. Gomer Emery, and the Welker sisters will sing.

Superintendent Archie Gibson learned today that Mrs. William Sunday, widow of the great evangelist, cannot be here for services on Sunday. While a change in her preaching route has taken her to California, Mrs. Sunday, a friend of Mr. Gibson, offered to fly to New Castle from Los Angeles, "if it is absolutely necessary that I be there."

CARSON CITY, Mich., March 14.—An 11-year-old Mexican child mother and her seven-pound-four-ounce son, born during a Caesarian operation in Carson City hospital last night, today were both reported "doing well" by attending physicians.

The operation was performed by Dr. Emmett Binkert, the hospital's chief of staff, as a part of a surgical clinic dedicating Carson City's new hospital.

RETONGA KEPT HIM ON THE JOB SAYS MORTON

Indigestion, Headaches, And Toxic Pains Had Steel Man Worried—Retonga Brought Happy Relief.

Mr. George J. Morton, well known resident of 211 Chartiers Ave., McKees Rock, and for eleven years a valued employee of Lockhart Steel Co. is among the latest to put Retonga to the test in his own case and come forward with his strong public endorsement of this widely-used medicine.

"Retonga is the most remarkable medicine I ever saw," declared Mr. Morton. "I had been a victim of constipation for years and was forced to take strong purgatives regularly, but they gave me little relief. Gas and bloating after meals headaches and a tired, sluggish feeling preyed on me until I could hardly stay on my job. Toxic wastes in my bowels seemed to keep me feeling miserable with headaches and I was so nervous it was hard for me to sleep."

"Retonga soon relieved these distresses and gave me a fine appetite. My nerves are quiet. I sleep the whole night through and my strength and resistance are ample to do a good job every day. I wish I could tell everybody about Retonga."

Retonga is a purely vegetable stomachic medicine combined with Vitamin B-1 for digestion, nerves and strength. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Pay-Less at Rate.—Adv.

Quartet Concoct Unusual Swindle, But To No Avail

(International News Service)
COLUMBUS, O., March 14.—The city slicker who sold the Brooklyn bridge to the gullible traveler, had nothing on this Negro quartet. Police charge them with dismantling a four-story building, carting away the material in a truck, and then selling it back piece by piece to the original owner.
The quartet, allegedly carted away plumbing fixtures, metal sheathing, window and door frames, radiators, steam pipes, and even elevator equipment, and then sold the materials for junk to the Goldberg Iron Co.
The owner of the recently deserted building, Arthur Goldberg, has a half interest in the latter company.
The four youths, Gean Pickett, 19; Leonard Hebon, 25; Charles Cooper, 19, and Frank Dunlap, 19, were arrested while tearing up the floor of the building, police said.
Brought to headquarters, they assertedly confessed, carrying five truckloads of material away from the building before their arrest. They were held under $5,000 bond each.

Mediation Board To Be Announced

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 14.—President Roosevelt revealed today that he hopes to be able to announce the set-up of a national mediation board to handle labor disputes in defense industries some time next week.
Mr. Roosevelt told his press conference that he was going to confer with Philip Murray, CIO chieftain and William Green, president of the AFL before he completed his study of the mediation board plan as recommended by defense leaders.
The president, in answer to a question, said that his conferences with Murray and Green should not be construed as any attempt to get the two labor organizations together.

Mr. Llewellyn, had completed three years of service, two and a half years ago, in the U. S. Signal Corps. He is in the employment of the B. and O. railroad.

Denies Report Of Ships Being Sent To Great Britain

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 14.—President Roosevelt today branded as entirely inaccurate, published stories which said that 99 warships, and 400 cargo and naval vessels would be sent to Great Britain this year under the aid program.
The president said absolutely no consideration had been given to any type of ship or any specific number of ships, that might be turned over to Britain or her allies. The chief executive conceded that this problem might come up in the future but asserted it was not now specifically before the government.
MUSCLES NO PROOF
Don't jump to the conclusion that the boys with the big rippling muscles turn in the best day's work, advises Felix Johie, personnel officer of the Chicago Cook County Forest Preserve district. Said he in an address: "The men with the big, bulging muscles is not always the best workman. Too often he loafs around displaying his brute strength while the less brawny do the work for him."

BIRTHMARKS

It is a remarkable how old superstitions about birthmarks persist today in spite of all that is written about them. It is my observation that the old wives' tales about birthmarks are just about the most widespread superstitions we have today. I don't think there are many races of people who don't regard birthmarks with a good deal of awe.

This superstition was given a pseudo-scientific twist a few years ago when prenatal influence was being stressed by addists. Then birthmarks were regarded as signs of some startling experience that had happened to the mother when she was carrying the child. For this belief, of course, there is no factual basis.

But just try and tell some people that. Folks in the backwoods country where I have served as physician for more years than I like to remember, are simple country folk, and they take their superstitions seriously, especially the one about birthmarks.

To some of them this or that birthmark looks like the snake that frightened the mother; another looks like the aeroplane the mother had a ride in; another looks like the horse that ran away and spilled out the mother.

We know today that birthmarks are caused when some of the pigment that goes into our coloring gets misplaced. We know very little about what controls distribution of this pigment. Some of which goes to the eyes, some to the skin, some to the hair, and so on. But somehow every now and then, some of the pigment goes to the wrong place and then we have a birthmark.

Fortunately, these marks are usually quite small, or they are on some part of the body usually covered by clothing. But every now and then, we see a very large birthmark on the face or neck, that amounts to a serious disfigurement. It marks the individual apart as much as though he had some other deformity and if the child happens to be a girl, it is a rather serious thing because it will influence her whole life.

Such birthmarks can be remedied or removed and the parents should see to it that they are. But here again we run into old superstition. Some people think that birthmarks should not be removed. They see in them some sort of supernatural phenomenon, some mark that was put there for some strange reason, and they refuse to let anything be done about them.

I myself know of several such cases, and when I meet these people as disfigured, I think what a shame it was that neglect or superstition has been allowed to influence a person's life to the extent that these do.

Miss Alice Sterling, New Castle librarian, will present a display and give a brief review of the latest religious books at the meeting of the New Castle Ministerial association to be held in the First Presbyterian church, North Jefferson and Falls streets, Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Miss Sterling will speak at 10:45.

At the close, the ministers will have an opportunity to borrow a book.

The regular program will consist of a round table discussion, to be led by Attorney Leroy K. Donaldson, assistant district attorney, and Rev. J. Calvin Rose.

Pearson League Games Exciting

Four more exciting cage tiffs were played in the Pearson Basketball league last night.

Minnesota was in fine fettle and handed Ohio State a 30-16 setback. Purdue romped off the court with a 44-43 verdict. Illinois upset Wisconsin, 21-19, and Michigan had enough to squeeze out a 21-20 decision over Northwestern to win the fourth round title.

DeLuca and A. Russo, each with 20 points, were high scorers for the evening. H. Libendort, Sumner, Mayberry, Pitzer, DeLorenzo, Campbell, J. Sullivan, Beynon were next in the high scoring division. Tex Richards officiated.

The mainspring of the average wristwatch, if straightened out, would be about one foot long.

Registration Of Unemployed Is Urged In County

State Employment Officer
Urges Registration To Be Made At Once

An appeal to all workers not now engaged in defense industries and who possess skills needed in carrying out the defense program of the nation to register at once with their local State Employment Service is made by Ewan Clague, Director of the Bureau of Employment Security.

John Velker, manager of the local State Employment Office, located at 132 1/2 E. Washington St., New Castle, Pa., explains that the registration about which Mr. Clague speaks represents a nation-wide effort as part of the national defense program to get the unemployed back to work as quickly as possible, but also to insure that as soon as workers are needed in defense production they can be reached without delay.

A particular appeal is made for the immediate registration of: (1) All workers who are unemployed and capable of holding jobs; and (2) All employed persons in the State who have had experience in the following trades but whose present employment does not utilize the skills of these trades: In aircraft manufacturing — airplane sheet metal workers, airplane woodworkers, aeronautical engineers, and inspectors; in ship building — ship carpenters, loftsmen, boatbuilders, ship fitters, caulkers, and marine machinists; in machine shops and machinery manufacturing — machinists, tool makers, die makers, lathe operators, and tool designers.

The Employment Service does not encourage or desire workers who are employed in any of the above industries to register.

March is always cyclonic—a good time for spring tonic.

Spring tonics are old-fashioned and unnecessary today.

In spring, resistance to infection is always low.

In grandmother's day there was a reason for spring tonics.

Some parents fail to provide adequate preventive protection.

The infectious diseases of childhood are not necessarily fatal.

But they often leave a damaged heart or kidneys or ears.

Some children are naturally immune to certain diseases.

No Major Work On Route No. 422

Senator McQuiddy Informed
Work Not To Be Started
In Immediate Future

Route 422 to the east of New Castle will not undergo any major improvement "in the immediate future," State Senator J. K. McQuiddy was notified today by Chief Engineer Thomas C. Frame of the State Highway department.

McQuiddy had urged, with the Greater New Castle association, that more improvement be made.

The highway chief wrote the senator:

"We have had the condition of Route 422 brought to our attention at frequent intervals and have personally made an inspection of the road. While the route is not modern, it is structurally intact to the extent that we do not feel that we could justify its reconstruction in the immediate future."

He recalled that "considerable expenditure" has been made in the way of stone shoulders along the route, and that 22 feet of traffic surface is now available.

Truckers Expect Crowd At Dinner

City And County Officials In-

Monday In The Castleton

More than the usual crowd is expected Monday night in The Castleton hotel when the Lawrence county chapter, Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association holds its regular dinner meeting. Paul W.

Keely, president of the chapter will preside at the meeting but there will be little speaking.

The attraction for the evening is the picture "Singing Wheels" a picture depicting the life of the motor transport men. It has been shown in many states to the trucking units and has attracted much attention.

City council and the mayor, and the county commissioners have been invited to attend the dinner meeting and it is probable most of them will be present.

Senate Passes Big Naval Bill

Record Shattering $3,446,685,144 Appropriation Bill Is Passed

GOES TO HOUSE FOR FEW CHANGES

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 21.—The senate Thursday passed the record shattering $3,446,685,144 naval appropriation bill after defeating by a tie vote an amendment which would have permitted the navy to purchase Argentine canned beef.

The vote on the amendment was 32 to 32, with Sen. Ellender (D) La. in the chair, in the temporary absence of vice president Wallace, who was at lunch. Ellender voted for the amendment, and if Wallace had been present he also could have cast a vote to break the tie.

Back To House.
The bill now goes back to the house for consideration of minor changes written into the bill by the senate.

The bill allocates $32,000,000 for work on six battle cruisers for which contracts have already been let with the New York shipbuilding company at Camden, N. J.

The cruisers, carrying batteries of 12 to 14 inch guns, will average from 20,000 to 25,000 tons, and cost about $43,000,000 each. They are supposed to be more effective than similar ships being constructed by Japan, according to reports from naval officials.

Funds for the six cruisers are part of an allocation of $1,515,000,000 for new ship construction. Other appropriations include $278,000,000 for shore development, $434,550,000 for aircraft, and $548,160,000 for modernizing older naval vessels. The bill also contains $5,000,000 for beginning construction of 27 section bases for "mosquito" boats, submarine chasers and patrol boats.

Maritime Board Member Is Named

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 21.—President Roosevelt on Thursday nominated Edward Macaulay of California to be a member of the maritime commission, replacing Max O'Rell Thuit, who has resigned.
Macaulay's nomination was sent to the senate for confirmation for the unexpired term of six years dating from September, 1938.
The president named Wayne Coy, Indiana; Charles West, Ohio, and Nelson Lee Smith, New Hampshire, to be members of the board of investigation and research which was set up under the transportation act of 1940. The president also nominated Claude N. Sapp to be reappointed U. S. attorney for the eastern district of South Carolina.

Would Legalize Playing Of Bingo

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, March 21.—Despite senate defeat of a similar proposal, Rep. Francis J. Falkenstein, Philadelphia Democrat, Thursday asked the legislature to legalize bingo for charitable purposes.
Falkenstein introduced a bill in the house to permit bingo playing in churches, fire companies, and social and fraternal organizations every day except Sunday. Organizations desiring to hold bingo games would obtain an annual license from the department of revenue at a cost of from $150 to $600, depending upon the population of the community.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1940 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

A current story has to do with a dumb rookie soldier having his medical examination. It was hard going for the doctor. The boy was a good-natured young man with a mischievous grin. Finally the exasperated doctor exclaimed:

"For the love of Pete! Don't you know the King's English?"

"Is he?" asked the boy, with a wide smile of comprehension at last.

"It's Tommy this and Tommy that, but they're a thin red line of 'eroes when the band begins to play." Back in Kipling's day, it didn't matter so much if here and there among them was one who was no giant intellect. They packed them in their hollow square or advanced them in their mass battalions or drummed them up the hill or down, the wise and the witless alike, impelled by a single voice of command.

But Kipling is gone and this is today, and here today the United States Army explains a new policy behind which lies the story of the adaptation of warfare to the machine age.

"Modern warfare," says this announcement, "requires self-reliance in every grade; individuals capable of independent thought and action, who are inspired by a distinct feeling that, as an individual, or as members of a unit, they are competent to cope with any condition, situation or adversary."

Those would be strange words to old Von Clausewitz, expounder of classical military strategy in which there is taken into account no single slight differential of soldierly initiative. But that is not all, the army will no longer require the salute to an officer by a private off-post, and the soldier in a mess hall no longer will be required to stop eating and sit at attention when an officer enters.

Individuality, intelligence, group co-operativeness and sportsmanship are the new goals of effectiveness and discipline in the model 1941 army of the U. S. A. And there are added to these: "A sense of duty, pride and responsibility, loyalty, morale, respect, confidence initiative and team-work."

Most of us, in our undergraduate years, have heard football coaches talk that way. Football, like war, has moved along in our generation from the mass attack to the open game, and it is in the open game that initiative and individuality are at a premium. The truth is that the very nature of a machine war required preliminary skills and training; resourcefulness and initiative on the part of the rank-and-file undreamed of in the days of standard tactics and simpler fighting tools.

Consider the tank-driver thundering down a broken field with no shovel to guide him. There's no "right by twos to the front" in this business, no dependable condition reflex instilled by the old drill tactics. One oddity of the machine age, or a machine war, is that it takes anything but a machine to run it.

This lad in the hell-bug must have not only a mastery of an intricate mechanism, but he must be capable of swift judgment, decision and action if anything goes wrong, under conditions which probably would have made Napoleon's best soldier forget his own name.

For the last two years, our army high-command has been intent on making soldiers self-starters and self-finishers. They learned a lesson from the British, in this, and also the French. In 1935, General Forster was thrown out of the British Army because of his loud and vehement insistence that not only equipment but army personnel must be thoroughly adapted to mechanization. And it was just about that time that the French punished their General Charles de Gaulle, for the same reason, by shunting him off as an instructor in an obscure military college. It is now General de Gaulle who heads the world forces of the Free French in London.

There were brass hats in our army, too, but, providentially, to us has been given an object lesson, and it appears that we are giving heed to it. We were talking, the other day, about the huge trucks, rolling over our great transcontinental highways and mountain ranges. It is a reminder that we have a civilian army of boys who can ride thunder-bolts. It is also a reminder that no nation in the world ever had so many men trained in such skills and hazards, and in the necessary initiative and resourcefulness which the army now invokes and instills.

We may remember, too, that we were far out in front in all this mechanization business; that the first caterpillar tread, which evolved into the British tank of the World War, was laid down in Stockton, California. That famous play of about twelve years ago, "Robots, Limited," may have been all wrong. The idea was that our machine age would turn men into machines. And here's a machine-age war in which the robot would be the last man to qualify. The army wants no automation at the wheel of a tank or of a plane, or behind a machine gun. And we may take heart in the fact that no nation in the world has any slight approximation of our multitudes of young men skilled in operating machines under trying conditions.

NEWSPAPERMAN GETS THREE-MONTH TERM

VICHY, France, March 21.—Jay E. Allen, correspondent of the North American Newspaper Alliance, today was sentenced to three months imprisonment for crossing the demarcation line between unoccupied and occupied France without authority from Germany military officials.

Early March Snow Caused Damage To State Fruit Trees

HARRISBURG, March 21.—Reports received during the past week from the state forest districts by the department of forests and waters, indicate that considerable damage was done locally to forest and fruit trees as a result of the heavy snow storm on March 7, 8 and 9.

The department has been keeping a record of the duration and extent of snow and ice storms and their damage to forest trees for the past thirty years. Chas. E. Baer, deputy secretary, said today.

W. J. Chapman, ticket chairman for the city states that the demand for tickets locally has shown a great increase during the past few days, and indications point to the fact that the demand is going to greatly exceed the supply.

NEW WAY TO RESIGN

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG.—After 33-year-old Charles A. Smith, a hotel porter, wrecked a guest's car while on a secret joyride he figured it was little use to return to work. So he tendered his "resignation" by sending a sister to his employer with his porter's uniform.

CENTURY-OLD HARP

(International News Service)
EASTON, Pa.—The Northampton County Historical society of Easton recently acquired a portable harp, believed to be more than 100 years old. The harp, like many antique in unconstructed stages, is a hard-made affair of walnut and is roughly 4½ feet high. Originally it has 36 strings but only a few remain intact and give an unenthusiastic "plunk" when plucked. The pegs that hold the strings are made of hand-wrought iron.
